2005 FUEL ECONOMY GUIDE

The U.S. Department of Energy (DOE) and U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) publish the Fuel Economy Guide annually and seek your help in educating the public about fuel economy and the benefits of using more fuel-efficient vehicles. We would appreciate your displaying the guides in a prominent place for patrons seeking information about purchasing new vehicles.

* Copies of the guide can be downloaded at www.fueleconomy.gov or ordered via the web at www.eere.energy.gov/cleancities/afdc/feg_orderform.html or by using the postcard below.

* Allow 10 days for delivery when ordering via the website. Allow 2-3 weeks when using the postcard.

Note to Automobile Dealer

According to federal law (40 CFR 600.405-77 to 600.407-77), the Fuel Economy Guide must be prominently displayed where new automobiles are offered for sale and be made available to the public at no charge.

The Fuel Economy Guide website, www.fueleconomy.gov, features

* printable, electronic version of the 2005 Guide
* updated fuel economy data for new and used vehicles dating to 1985
* choose vehicles for side-by-side comparison
* emissions information
* safety ratings
* links to car-buying web sites

By working together we can help consumers save money, reduce our nation's dependence on imported oil, and promote cleaner air in our communities. Please call 1-800-423-1DOE if you have any questions.

For your convenience and for faster delivery please order online at www.eere.energy.gov/cleancities/afdc/feg_orderform.html.
