The Form RRB-1042S tax statement enclosed is issued by the U.S. Railroad Retirement Board (RRB) and represents payments made to you in the tax year indicated on the statement. You will need to determine if any of the railroad retirement payments made to you are taxable. Explanation of items on Form RRB-1042S are on the back of this explanation sheet.

The mailing address shown on Form RRB-1042S is the address we currently have on our records. Please review the mailing address shown. If the mailing address shown is incorrect or incomplete, please provide the RRB with your correct mailing address.

Form RRB-1042S reports the Social Security Equivalent Benefit (SSEB) portion of tier 1 and special guaranty benefits paid and repaid to nonresident aliens of the United States, and the related U.S. Federal income tax withheld. SSEB payments are similar to social security benefits for U.S. Federal income tax purposes. Payments and repayments resulting from railroad retirement annuity adjustments are shown on your tax statements, and may be fully or partially subject to taxation. This is true whether adjustments result in net amounts due or net overpayments which you are asked to repay, and whether any overpayments are recovered or waived. A repayment is a returned payment, a cash refund, or an amount withheld from your annuity to recover an overpayment. Certain payments and repayments are not taxable and are not reported on your tax statements. These certain payments and repayments include tier 1, tier 2, vested dual benefits paid for a period before December 1983; tier 2 and vested dual benefits repaid for a period before December 1983; separation allowance lump sum amounts; residual lump sum amounts; lump sum death payments; and Railroad Retirement Act tax refunds. For information about SSEB benefits and Form RRB-1042S, get IRS Publication 915, Social Security and Equivalent Railroad Retirement Benefits.

NOTE: You should have received Form SSA-1042S and Notice 703 from the Social Security Administration (SSA) if you also received social security benefits for the tax year indicated on the Form RRB-1042S. Contact SSA not the RRB if you need Form SSA-1042S and Notice 703.

Our records indicate that you are a nonresident alien of the United States. A nonresident alien is an individual who is neither a citizen nor resident of the United States, Guam, the U.S. Virgin Islands, Puerto Rico or the Northern Mariana Islands. Taxes should have been withheld from your railroad retirement benefit payments made in the tax year indicated on your tax statement(s), unless you were exempt under a tax treaty between the United States and your country of legal residence. You are not required to file a U.S. Federal income tax return if: (1) your entire tax liability was fulfilled by withholding of tax on benefits; (2) your only income from sources within the United States was not connected to a trade or business; and (3) the correct amount of tax for the correct period was withheld from your annuity payments. However, you may wish to file an income tax return to receive a tax refund if too much tax was withheld from these payments. If your country of legal residence changed and/or your tax withholding rate changed during a given tax year, you may receive more than one set of Forms RRB-1042S and/or RRB-1099-R. If you were also a resident of the United States during a given tax year, you may receive Forms RRB-1099 and/or RRB-1099-R, and be required to file Form 1040, U.S. Individual Income Tax Return. If you are required to file an income tax return, a negligence penalty or other sanction may be imposed on you if the income is taxable and the United States Internal Revenue Service (IRS) determines that it has not been reported. For more information on filing requirements for aliens, refer to IRS Publication 519, U.S. Tax Guide for Aliens. Railroad retirement payments are not taxable for U.S. state income tax purposes.

There are two boxes located at the top left hand side of the Form RRB-1042S indicated as CORRECTED or DUPLICATE. Neither box will be checked if this is an original Form RRB-1042S. One of these boxes is checked when either a corrected or duplicate Form RRB-1042S is prepared. Both boxes are checked if the Form RRB-1042S is a duplicate of a previously corrected Form RRB-1042S. You may receive more than one original Form RRB-1042S for the tax year indicated. Each original Form RRB-1042S is valid and should be included when you file your income tax return for the tax year indicated. A "duplicate" Form RRB-1042S is the same as a previously released original or corrected Form RRB-1042S. The RRB may issue a "corrected" Form RRB-1042S if there is an error in the "original" Form RRB-1042S. A "corrected" Form RRB-1042S replaces the corresponding "original" Form RRB-1042S. Therefore, you must use the latest corrected or duplicate Form RRB-1042S you received AND any original Form RRB-1042S that the RRB has not corrected when you file and/or amend your income tax return for that same tax year.

You may also receive a Form RRB-1099-R tax statement in addition to a Form RRB-1042S. Form RRB-1099-R reports the taxable paid, repaid, and U.S. Federal income tax withheld from, the Non-Social Security Equivalent Benefit (NSSEB) portion of tier 1, tier 2, vested dual benefit (VDB), and supplemental annuity payments. These payments are treated as private pensions for U.S. Federal tax purposes. For more information about these payments and Form RRB-1099-R, refer to IRS Pub. 575, Pension and Annuity Income. To determine your taxable amount, follow the Instructions for Form 1040 and/or Form 1040A Booklet(s), and/or IRS Publication 939, General Rule for Pensions and Annuities.

The totals reported on your Form RRB-1042S may not equal the total amount of SSEB payments you actually received during the tax year indicated. For beneficiaries receiving Medicare, the difference may be the total amount of Medicare premiums paid during the tax year indicated. Amounts shown on tax statements issued by the RRB are before any deduction for Medicare. Effective for tax years 1997 and later, the RRB only shows the total Part B Medicare premiums that were deducted from railroad retirement annuity payments for the tax year indicated on Form RRB-1042S. The RRB does not show the Medicare premiums deducted from social security benefits on any tax statement issued by the RRB. In addition, Medicare premium refunds are not included in your Medicare premium total.

IF YOU HAVE ANY QUESTIONS ABOUT HOW TO FIGURE YOUR TAXABLE PAYMENTS AND/OR WHAT AMOUNTS TO SHOW ON YOUR INCOME TAX RETURNS AND/OR HOW TO AMEND INCOME TAX RETURNS, CONTACT YOUR OWN TAX PREPARER OR THE IRS. However, contact the RRB if you have questions about your Form RRB-1042S and railroad retirement benefit payments, or if you need to request a duplicate Form RRB-1042S for any tax year.
