Re: Residency Waiver Request, CAIS Control Number

Dear Mr./Ms.(Name):

The Comptroller of the Currency (OCC) has disapproved the request to waive the residency requirement under 12 USC 72 for (name of person(s)), so that he/she may be elected to the board of directors of (bank name). This decision was reached after a thorough review of all information provided in the filing and other information available to the OCC in its regulatory and supervisory activities.

The OCC has the authority to disapprove any waiver request, if it is in violation of any applicable laws, rulings, or regulations; if the competence and experience of a proposed director are not relevant to the bank and the types of services it provides; or if the reputation and integrity of a proposed director would not support the bank's safety and soundness.

The OCC's review and/or investigation revealed that (state findings and reasons for objection).

Sincerely,
