PROSECUTING PARTY'S MOTION FOR AN EXTENSION TO RESPOND TO DISCOVERY

Prosecuting Party Office of Apprenticeship Training, Employer and Labor Services ("OATELS") hereby moves for a seven-day extension, from October 20 to October 27, 2003, to respond to Respondent California Apprenticeship Council's ("CAC") first set of discovery requests in the above case. The requested extension is necessary to enable OATELS and its attorneys to complete their search for, and review of, responsive documents, and to determine whether there are any applicable objections or privileges. The extension will not delay this proceeding because CAC's counsel, Julian Standen, Esq., is out of the country until October 28, and OATELS' responses will be submitted before he returns to the office.

On October 20, I informed Randall Borcharding, Esq., Mr. Standen's supervisor, that OATELS was requesting this extension, and Mr. Borcharding did not object.

Respectfully submitted,
