ARMY JOB APPLICATION KIT

Working To Support Our Customers

INTRODUCTION

This guide contains information to aid you in successfully completing your Resume when applying for Department of Army employment opportunities. Although we accept Resumes sent by e-mail or traditional surface mail, we strongly encourage you to use our on-line, interactive Resume Builder. By using the Army Resume Builder, you will save time and the cost of mailing and be less likely to miss consideration because your Resume was not received in time, was incomplete or was not in the proper format. In addition, by using the Resume Builder, you will receive immediate confirmation that your Resume was received and processed. The Army Resume Builder can be found on the Internet at (https://cpol.army.mil/rb/rb_entry.cgi) or from a hyper-link in the vacancy announcement.

The Army uses an automated system called Resumix to fill vacancies. The system uses state-of-the-art optical character recognition (OCR) software and a patented skills extraction system to read your Resume, extract skills and match them to job requirements.

PREPARING YOUR RESUME

You should start by thinking about your career goals. Focus on defining and identifying the key and meaningful skills you currently possess, particularly those that are related to the positions that you are interested in applying for. Describe your experience in sufficient detail with concrete words rather than vague descriptions. Do not use acronyms unless you spell them out first. Although the system can extract and store many skills, it is not unlimited. You will want to use judgment when including skills that may be outdated or no longer used in the workplace. An example might be that you would avoid including that you once operated a manual typewriter.

The Resume you prepare is not intended to be a complete “working life history” but should provide enough information to determine eligibility and qualifications. You may update your Resume at anytime, however, it is important to remember that only the latest Resume will be active. If your description of duties combines Federal civilian positions at different grade levels, make sure you include the month, day and year (MM/DD/YY) you were promoted to each grade. The same should be followed in deciding which specific education and training information to place on your Resume to support your qualifications. Some positions require a college degree where you will be required to submit a transcript if specified in the vacancy announcement or if you are selected for a job.

USING THE ARMY RESUME BUILDER

Using the Army Resume Builder to apply for vacancies is a two-step process. The first step is to create your Resume and supplemental data. The second step is to submit your Resume and Supplemental Data to the Army Centralized Resumix database.

The Army Resume Builder is designed to help ensure that your Resume can be read electronically. In addition, the Resume Builder allows you to save and store your Resume for up to six months, allowing you to retrieve and update your Resume as needed. In order to receive actual consideration for vacancies, however, you must submit your Resume and Supplemental Data to the Army Centralized Resumix database. This is done by going to the e-mail Resume page, selecting Central Database and clicking on Submit. Your Resume will automatically flow into the Army Centralized Resumix database. You may now apply for vacancies by taking advantage of our quick self-nomination process. Army vacancy announcements are posted at (<http://www.cpol.army.mil/>). Simply click on Employment, then Army’s Vacancy Announcements to find vacancy announcements of interest to you and for which you are within the area of consideration.

REVIEW OF RESUMES

A review of your Resume for eligibility and qualifications will be done prior to the referral list being issued to the selecting official. You are reminded that all information included in your Resume is subject to review and verification. Authorized legal and regulatory penalties may be imposed on those submitting false information. Falsification of your Resume could result in termination of Federal employment, and may be punishable by fine or imprisonment.

To receive preference, the spouse must be married to the military sponsor before reporting to the new duty assignment. MSP applies when the spouse arrives in the overseas area and to a position in the commuting area of the military sponsor's permanent duty station. MSP applies if you are ranked among the "best qualified" for the vacancy for which you are applying. Effective 1 June 2001, DoD has approved MSP CHOICE, a two-year test for the European Theater. Under this directive, military spouses will not lose MSP when accepting a temporary or term position or a permanent position with a flex or intermittent on-call work schedule. MSP is retained until the military spouse accepts or declines the offer of a permanent appointment to a full-time or part-time position. NOTE: MSP applies to initial employment at the overseas location. Once the spouse accepts or declines a continuing position, eligibility terminates whether or not the position was obtained through MSP. MSP is lost when the spouse accepts or declines an offer of a continuing position or declines a job interview for a continuing position. A continuing position is a permanent full-time or part-time position. This includes positions with non-appropriated fund (NAF) organizations or AAFES. MSP can be used only once during the sponsor's tour. Once used, the spouse competes as a family member without preference.

This category does not apply to family members of contractors. FMP applies when the Family Member (FM) arrives in the overseas area and to positions in the commuting areas of the sponsor's duty station. FMP also applies when an active duty member of a dual military couple exits the service overseas and applies for civilian employment as a family member. NOTE: FMP applies to initial employment at the overseas location. Once the FM accepts or declines a continuing position, eligibility terminates whether or not the position was obtained through FMP. A continuing position for FMP purposes is a position expected to last one year or longer regardless of work schedule. This includes positions with NAF organizations or AAFES. FMP can be used only once during the sponsor's tour. Once used, the FM competes as a family member without preference (FMNP). FMP does not apply to FMs of locally hired civilian employees or government contractors. FMP is lost when the spouse accepts or declines an offer of a continuing position to include a temporary position that is expected to last one year or more, or that is extended to last one year or more, or declines a job interview.
- Family Member No Preference (FMNP) (Overseas): Family members of locally hired DoD or NAF civilian employees, or A family member or spouse preference eligible who has lost military spouse or family member preference due to accepting or declining an offer of continuing employment. For additional information, you may also go to OPM's Vetguide at: (<http://www.opm.gov/veterans/index.htm>)

Veteran must have retired at a rank lower than Major or Lieutenant Commander. A campaign medal holder or Gulf War veteran who originally enlisted after September 7, 1980, (or began active duty on or after October 14, 1982, and has not previously completed 24 months of continuous active duty) must have served continuously for 24 months or the full period called or ordered to active duty. The 24-month service requirement does not apply to 10-point preference eligibles separated for disability incurred or aggravated in the line of duty, or to veterans separated for hardship or other reasons under 10 U.S.C. 1171 or 1173.
- 10-Point Disability: Veteran is eligible for 10-point veterans' preference if the veteran served at any time and has a present service-connected disability or is receiving compensation, disability retirement benefits, or pension from the military or the Department of Veterans' Affairs but does not qualify as a CP or CPS or has received a Purple Heart.
- 10-Point Compensable (CP): Veteran is eligible for 10-point veterans' preference if the veteran served at any time and received a compensable service-connected disability rating of at least 10 percent but less than 30 percent.

 - A spouse of a disabled veteran who is disqualified for a Federal position along the general lines of his or her usual occupation because of a service-connected disability. Such a disqualification may be presumed when the veteran is unemployed and is rated by appropriate military or Department of Veterans Affairs authorities to be 100 percent disabled and/or unemployable; or has retired, been separated, or resigned from a civil service position on the basis of a disability that is service-connected in origin; or has attempted to obtain a civil service position or other position along the lines of his or her usual occupation and has failed to qualify because of a service-connected disability. Preference may be allowed in other circumstances but anything less than the above warrants a more careful analysis.
 - A widow or widower of a veteran who was not divorced from the veteran, has not remarried, or the remarriage was annulled, and the veteran either served during a war or during the period April 28, 1952, through July 1, 1955, or in a campaign or expedition for which a campaign medal has been authorized; or died while on active duty that included service described immediately above under conditions that would not have been the basis for other than an honorable or general discharge.
 - A mother of a veteran who died under honorable conditions while on active duty during a war or during the period April 28, 1952, through July 1, 1955, or in a campaign or expedition for which a campaign medal has been authorized; and she is or was married to the father of the veteran; and she lives with her totally and permanently disabled husband (either the veteran's father or her husband through remarriage); or she is widowed, divorced, or separated from the veteran's father and has not remarried; or she remarried but is widowed, divorced, or legally separated from her husband when she claims preference.
 - A mother of a living disabled veteran if the veteran was separated with an honorable or general discharge from active duty performed at any time and is permanently and totally disabled from a service-connected injury or illness; and the mother is or was married to the father of the veteran; and lives with her totally and permanently disabled husband (either the veteran's father or her husband through remarriage); or is widowed, divorced, or separated from the veteran's father and has not remarried; or remarried but is widowed, divorced, or legally separated from her husband when she claims preference.

Note: Preference is not given to widows or mothers of deceased veterans who qualify for preference under 5 U.S.C. 2108 (1) (B), (C) or (2). Thus, the widow or mother of a deceased disabled veteran who served after 1955, but did not serve in a war, campaign, or expedition, would not be entitled to preference. 5 U.S.C. 2108 and 3309; 38 U.S.C. 5303A
