FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

NORTHERN MISSOURI CO-DEFENDANT SENTENCED FOR INVOLVEMENT IN METH CONSPIRACY

KANSAS CITY, Mo. – Todd P. Graves, United States Attorney for the Western District of Missouri, announced that a Queen City, Mo., man was sentenced in federal court today for his role in a conspiracy to manufacture and distribute methamphetamine.

Edward W. Robbins, 52, of Queen City, Mo., was sentenced by U.S. District Judge Ortrie D. Smith this morning to four years and nine months in federal prison without parole.

On Feb. 18, 2003, Robbins pleaded guilty to conspiring to manufacture and distribute methamphetamine between Sept. 7, 2001, and Sept. 19, 2002. Robbins was originally charged with being involved in the conspiracy in an indictment returned by a federal grand jury in Kansas City on Oct. 16, 2002.

Edward Robbins is the first guilty co-defendant to be sentenced in this case. Six other defendants also have pleaded guilty to conspiring to manufacture and distribute methamphetamine.

Jerry E. Hilderman, 39, of Novinger, Mo., pleaded guilty on April 16, 2003, to conspiring to manufacture and distribute methamphetamine.

Martin L. Robbins, 28, of Greentop, Mo., pleaded guilty on March 12, 2003, to conspiring to manufacture and distribute methamphetamine. Specifically, Robbins admitted that he supplied precursor materials to others for the purpose of manufacturing methamphetamine.

Co-defendant Wayne J. Gregory, 41, of Worthington, Mo., pleaded guilty on March 11, 2003. By pleading guilty, Graves said, Gregory admitted that between Sept. 7, 2001, and Sept. 19, 2002, he, too, conspired with others to manufacture and distribute methamphetamine. Gregory admitted that he also supplied precursor materials, including the ingredient pseudoephedrine, to others for the purpose of manufacturing and distributing methamphetamine.

Co-defendants Cherie L. Johns, 46, of Novinger, Mo., Karanda R. Embry, 22, of Novinger, and David L. Mullin, 22, of Kirksville, Mo., also have pleaded guilty to their roles in the conspiracy to manufacture and distribute methamphetamine.

As a result of pleading guilty, the remaining six co-defendants are subject to sentences of up to 20 years in federal prison without parole. They also may be subject to fines of up to $1 million. The co-defendant's sentences will be determined according to the United States Sentencing Guidelines. Sentencing hearings will be scheduled after the completion of a presentence investigation by the U.S. Probation Office.

This case is being prosecuted by Assistant U.S. Attorney W. Brent Powell. It was investigated by the North Missouri Drug Task Force, the Adair County, Mo., Sheriff's Department, the Putnam County, Mo., Sheriff's Department, the Schuyler County, Mo., Sheriff's Department, the Kirksville, Mo., Police Department, the Knox County Sheriff's Department, the Missouri State Highway Patrol and the Federal Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms.
