It is to be noted that LEVISON attended St. Johns Law School from the period 1935 to 1939.

With respect to the American Law Students Association, the Sunday edition of the "New York Times", dated December 27, 1936 on Page 10, Column 1, under the heading "Society Formed By Law Students" set forth the following:

"The American Law Students Association, designed to deal with legal, ethical, social and economic problems affecting law school students, was formed yesterday by students from the law schools of Columbia University, New York University, St. Johns University, and Brooklyn Law School in this city, and Harvard and Yale.

"During their three hour meeting in the Bar Association Building, the students showed greatest interest in the economic difficulties that are confronting them as law clerks and as young lawyers. Suggestion of a minimum wage for clerks brought a withdrawal for the St. Johns Student Council. Assurance that the organization would take no stand at present on a minimum wage brought the Council back in, and THOMAS W. LA VENIA, President of the St. Johns Council was elected Vice President of the new organization.

"The group finally adopted the proposal by the LINFIELD Committee that the Association 'take adequate steps in conjunction with bar associations, law school faculties, and other legal groups to improve the economic well-being of law students, law clerks, and young attorneys.' Suggestions were made of more Government jobs for lawyers.

"The meeting decided that the organization would be a forum for the discussion of the legal basis of national problems, and encourage cooperation between law reviews and the exchange of professors, and would seek changes in curriculum to prepare for Government positions".

NY 65-111180

Mentioned in the above article with THOMAS W. ~~LA~~ ~~VENIA~~, were STANLEY LEVISON and JOHN ~~MALONEY~~, student and Vice Dean, respectively of St. Johns University Law School, among others. NY

[REDACTED] advised in 1941 that among other circulars, a copy of the minutes of the Fifth Annual Convention of the American Law Students Association was found in Madison Square Garden, New York City, following the CP meeting held on April 17, 1941. b1

The CP has been designated by the Attorney General pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

The House Committee on Un-American Activities, 79th Congress, Second Session, May 29, 1946, at Washington, D.C., reported the following on Page 8 with respect to the American Law Students Association:

"1. Cited as under Communist control, influence, or in collaboration with the CP by the Committee for Cultural Freedom, Professor JOHN ~~DEWEY~~, Chairman, April, 1940." NY

When interviewed during the early part of 1954 in connection with another matter, Father JOSEPH T. TILLANEY, Dean of St. Johns University Law School in Brooklyn, New York, stated as follows in connection with the American Law Students Association. Father TILLANEY said that it was his understanding that the American Law Students Association was conceived with ethical and loyal intentions in 1936. The St. Johns Council was active in the association for approximately one year and the association became rather dormant thereafter to the best of his knowledge. He added that it was his understanding that the American Law Students Association became connected with persons and organizations of questionable patriotism and then died out entirely. He stated that it had been replaced by another organization of excellent reputation, sponsored by the American Bar Association.

Information Concerning J. F. LOEWI's Estate

The following information appeared in various records in Surrogates Court, file numbers A2050/1949 and PC01/1951.

JOSEPH F. LOEWI, according to these records, died a resident of NY County on 6/4/49. On 6/29/49 a decree was made awarding letters of administration to ALICE R. LOEWI on the goods, chattels and credits of her deceased husband. Subsequently there was found a will of JOSEPH F. LOEWI dated 6/24/40 together with a codicil dated 3/31/42, which were admitted to probate by decree of the court 5/15/51. This decree directed issuance of letters testamentary to STANLEY LEVISON and ALICE LOEWI, and ordered letters of administration previously granted to ALICE LOEWI be revoked. Letters testamentary were issued to LEVISON and LOEWI 5/15/51. Between 6/29/49 and 5/15/51 the estate was administered by ALICE LOEWI as administratrix, between 5/15/51 and 2/15/54 by LEVISON and LOEWI as executors.

Letters of trusteeship were issued to LEVISON and LOEWI on 12/28/52

The Surrogates Court's records included a petition filed 12/11/51 by ALICE R. LOEWI of 130 E. 39th St., NYC, in Application for Appointment of Testamentary Trustees to execute the trust created under the will of JOSEPH F. LOEWI. This application states in part:

"As appears from the amended petition for probate of the will herein, ANDREW W. LOEWI pre-deceased the testator. Renunciation of their rights to be appointed and act as trustees herein were filed by CHARLES M. NEWMAN and JAY RICHARD KENNEDY simultaneously with the filing of the petition before probate. The said will named as successor trustees ALICE R. LOEWI, JOHN MURRAY and D. WILLIAM LEIDER. JOHN MURRAY's renunciation is on file in this court. D. WILLIAM LEIDER has since deceased, and in any event he has been succeeded by the appointment of STANLEY D. LEVISON under the codicil of 3/30/42.....

"That the only persons remaining who are able and willing to qualify as trustees are ALICE R. LOEWI and STANLEY D. LEVISON.....

"The net estate of the decedent, exclusive of insurance payable directly to beneficiaries, is estimated at $80,000. The assets, consisting mostly of securities in closely held corporations, are in such condition that the trust may now be set up".

The records also include amended petition for probate of will made 3/15/51 by ALICE R. LOEWI containing a statement to the effect that at the time of his death JOSEPH F. LOEWI was a resident of 33 E. 48th St., NYC. The petition also set forth a list of names of persons having an interest in the estate as follows:
