MEMORANDUM FOR MR. UGO CARUSI EXECUTIVE ASSISTANT TO THE ATTORNEY GENERAL

Ro: "MLEANOR CLUBS"

This is in reply to your memorandum of December 27, 1942, requesting a suggested statement suitable for use in answering a letter dated December 21, 1942, from Mr. Walter White of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, concerning the captioned matter.

The Federal Bureau of Investigation received an allegation that the rumors of the existence of "Eleanor Clubs" originated from Nazi sources for the purpose of causing dissension. Accordingly, in each instance in which there has been brought to attention a report or an allegation of the existence of such a club, steps have been taken to trace the report or allegation to its source for the purpose of determining whether forces inimical to the best interests of the United States Government were involved. In no instance has an "Eleanor Club" been identified as actually existing or has the rumor been traced to any foreign source.

I believe the above statement of facts will serve as compliance with your request. The reference letter directed to the Attorney General is returned herewith.

Very truly yours,

HATIONAL ASSOCIATION FOR THE ADVANCE: ENT

69 Fifth Avenue, New York

December 21st 1942

My dear Mr. Biddle:

Mr. Jerome J. Rothschild (whom you doubtless know), who is president of the Philadelphia Anti-Defamation Council, 615-18 Widener Building, has asked us for information to answer the statement made a a recent meeting of the Playground and Recreation Association of Philadelphia by a leading citizen of Philadelphia to the effect that there is a widespread organization of "Eleanor" clubs in various parts of the South, and perhaps in the North. Would you be good enough to send Mr. Rothschild a copy of the Federal Bureau of Investigation's report made after the investigation, which was requested by Mrs. Roosevelt, to prove that there is no truth in these rumors?

I would be grateful if you would also send us a copy of the full statement for our own files so that we might have it for future reference.

Every sincerely,

/s/ Walter White

Secretary.

the Daily Times Leader advised that although he did not know whether there was an ELFANOR CLUB or not in Glay County, the negroes appeared to be very well behaved, and not subject to any outside influence. There has been very little racial trouble in Clay County since the time the Red Cap Organization ceased being active.

The above mentioned individuals stated that upon receipt of any information regarding Negro agitation they would forward the same to the Jackson Field Division.

was accordingly interviewed wh regard to his knowledge concerding such organizations. __acoma Park, Eryland, had had a negro maio named AIMIE. advised that he had been impressed with the consideration ad shown to AMIE over a long period of time. He said that came from Staunton, Virginia and appeared to understand negroes. he related that she had secured the services of a physician whenever ANNIE had been ill and had also had him look to her spiritual needs. Despite the fact that ANNUE had received every attention from he said, the maid had become rebellious and sullen and eventually quit. He advised that he learned through that ANNIE had been a member of a so-called "ELEANOR CLUB" whose motto was "No colored maid in the kitcheh by Christmas." as unable to furnish any further information with regard to the matter, but suggested that to furnish complete details.

It should be noted that prior to the receipt of this complaint the Eureau advised the Washington Field office under date of September 30. 19/2 that information had been received from through his wife, relative to the possible existence of such a club in the City of Washington. had said that he heard through a fellow employee at the Radio Lesearch Tepartment of the Naval Research Laboratory that a neighbor of this organization.

This information was to the effect that the neighbor lady told her maid to prepare places for the evening cinner for four people. Upon examining the setting of the table she notices there were five places arranged and when she asked the maid the reason for setting a fifth place rather than the four she was advised by the maid that the maid was a member of an "ELEANOR CLUB" and that she was to eat with the guests that evening.

As shown in the report of dated November 20, 1942 at Washington, L. C. in the case entitled "FOREIGN INSPIRED AGITATION ALONG THE AMERICAN NEGROES IN THE WASHINGTON FIELD DIVISION; INTERNAL SECURITY - C" both the Lnd were interviewed in connection with this matter, but neither were able to furnish any additional information. reluctantly advised that he had heard of the incident through his mother who had in turn learned of it from watter, but she said that she had never heard of the story. The only in-that a few years before she had employed a negro boy whose name whose present whereabouts she could not then recall, who had said advised that she had not believed the boy, whom she knew to be an inveterate liar, but had questioned him shout the matter. He had replied that a family living next door to would permit the boy to eat with them as he was not employed as their servant.

Said that she knew that such was not the case and had dismissed the matter from her wind. She could not account for the story reported by those identity was not revealed) unless it had originated with the incident just related by her.

Even prior to the above report

.W., reported to

.W., reported to 24, 1942 the existence of some such club. According to this informant, who was not considered entirely reliable, the members of the so-called "ELMALOR CLUES" had agreed to quit their employment, if any of their employers or their friends made a slurring reference to either the President or his wife. This informant was unable to give any further information with regard to the organizations, and no further investigation was conducted on the basis of her allegation.

It is also noted in the report of Atlanta, Georgia, dated October 16, 1942 in the case entitled Atlanta, Georgia, dated October 16, 1942 in the case entitled LaGrange, Georgia that a negro cook had quit her job and stated that she had been ordered to do so by the "ELKANOR UNION" and that she had signed a pledge in her own blood and that any negro who took her job would be beet up by members of the group. A complete investigation of this matter as shown in this report revealed that the entire story was false as far as its having occurred at LaGrange, Georgia and that the story had apparently originated at Washington, D. C. and Birmingham, Alabama.

With regard to the origin of the story, at LaGrange Womans College, stated that while she was visiting a neice in Marietta, Pennsylvania, whose name she refused to divulge, she had attended a bridge party at a neighbor's home. She could not recall the name of the neighbor, but stated that at the party a or a she was not sure which, had told her that the wife of a retired Naval Officer in Washington, D. C. had said that her negro cook had suddenly quit her job. When asked for the reason for leaving the cook had said that she was a member of the FLEANOR UNION* and that since on the previous night the Naval Officer's wife had guests who ridiculed the negroes it was her obligation to quit her job in compliance with the pledge which she had signed in blood. Stated that this story came to her in July, 1942 and that while she was returning to Georgia from Pennsylvania she went through Charlotte, North Carolina where she heard a similar story.

In view of the indefinite origin of this last mentioned story no effort was made to investigate it in this Field Division. It would appear, however, that the stories of the so-called "ELEANOR CLUBS" are the result of widespread rumors without foundation and fact. An effort will be made, however, to substantiate the existence of such an organization wherever any specific complaint is received.

could give no specific information ether in regard to this subject, but also stated that the whole matter was based strictly on rumor. She also mentioned that much of the discussion was predicated upon the street car incidents above mentioned and that the problem was brought to her attention also in these neighborhood group discussions. She too mentioned the magazine articles and stated that it was she who had brought the articles to the attention of the group and thereby more or less began the discussions. She had no information as to any ELEANCR CLUB or other negro organization.

stated that she had formerly employed a negro maid for approximately seven years who was a very loyal and capable servant. She said occasionally this negro maid would serve her breakfast while in bed and daring to her the morning paper and that they for a few moments would discuss the headlines. In a very innocent manner, stated this maid on infrequent occasions did mention that "it is coming soon" meaning trouble between negroes and the white people. However, stated that there was no information and indication given as to a negro organization which had for its purpose retaining equality between the whites and negroes or to create any riots or uprising among the negroes and the whites.

Stated that it was merely a rumor which had been discussed.

New York, N. T., September 29, 1942.

These clubs are an actual fact. They have been started at Washington and have spread out like a fan to other sectors. It seems as though some pressure has been put upon the F.B.I. not to dig into these very deep because Mrs. F.D.R. issued a statement that the F.B.I. had investigated them and there was nothing to it.

Eleanor has been playing ball with that crowd of negroes that Congressman Dies accuses of being Communists. We mean Mary Bethune. William Pickens, Ben Davis and a few others hanging around Washington.

in that 'ounty, inasmuch as they had been ordered to straighten the matter out themselves or else the whites would straighten it out for them. The Sheriff suggested that the City Marshal of Eupora would be able to give the full story concerning this matter.

groceryman in Eupora, advised that he has no personal knowledge concerning the above described incident, but that he had attended the mass meeting called by the whitee, to which a few of the leaders among the negroes had been invited, and at this meeting the negroes were told that it had been rumored that there was an organization among them which they had better straighten out themselves or it would be handled by the whites in their own way. The negroes appeared to be cooperative and only one of them, a negro by the name of offered to make any statement whatever. However, he was not allowed to do so and the negroes have said nothing about the matter since that time.

knowledge that he had of this organization was what he had been told by He felt that this organization, whatever it was, was purely a local matter and that any ideas the negroes had for organizing they had obtained from reading negro newspapers obtained from negroes who had gone north and had returned to the South and from negroes who were soldiers and who had received more or less equal treatment with white soldiers in the camps. He feels certain no one had been agitating among the negroes in that community or stirring them up in any way. He expressed the opinion that the negroes in that County were very good and he would put them up against negroes anywhere. He feels that the City Marshal now has the situation well in hand and that no organization is now in existence.

Approximately three or four months ago, one of the clerks at the Local Draft Board called him and told him that a negro selectee, had become impudent when she reprimanded him for appearing five days late for induction. A arrested this negro, who told him that an Eleanor Club had just been organized in that vicinity and that about two-thirds of the cooks belonged to it, while the others would have nothing to do with it. To the best of the recollection, had mentioned a few names, but the only one he remembered was a woman by the name of the cooks before the same night with and his brother when they were escorted from town. As told it to the negroes were not to go to work before 8 AM, were to enter by the front door and were not to work unless they received so much pay. The had furnished this information to the Mayor, who had immediately called a mass meeting of the white citizens of Eupora, and had invited a few of the leaders among the negroes. At this meeting the negroes were told that this was a white South and will remain that as long as it exists. They were warned to straighten this matter out among themselves or the whites would handle it their own way.

According to the negroes "really got right, and those who did not get right left town". Since that time everything has been tranquil. Stated that he is well acquainted with the situation and feels certain that there was no foreign inspired agitation involved. He is positive that no organization is now in existence and that the organization mentioned above existed for only about two weeks. He stated that he has some very reliable informants among the negroes who kept him advised on such matters and that he therefore knows that this club nor any similar club is now not in existence in this vicinity. He promised to advise this office if any indication of such an organization again arose.

in the office of the County Agent, advised that with the exception of the above incident, there is not now and has been, no indication of an Eleanor Club being formed in Webster County, and that there has been no agitation among the negroes in that County.

In view of the above information, no further investigation is being conducted in this matter, and the case is being closed.

AT SELMA, ALABAMA:

the King Lemorial Fospital advised that she is supervisor of all nursing activities; that none of the nurses on either the day or night shift had mentioned to her anything relative to ELEANOR CIUBS that any of the negro employees of the hospital might belong to. She stated that as far as she knows these clubs are not in existence in Selma and further that none of the negro employees at the hospital have given any trouble or indicated that they intended to quit or strike for higher wages because they are members of such clubs.

at the king Memorial Hospital, advised that the hospital employs about eight negroes, four of whom are male orderlies and four of whom are maids; that none or them have ever given any trouble whatsoever or indicated, as far as he knows, to anyone that they intended to quit their jobs because they are members of the subject organization. He advised that he heard rumor to the effect that subject organization is in existence in Salma, but believes to be mere adle gossip as nothing specific has ever developed.

nemorial Hospital, advised that the hospital employs the following negroes:

She stated that none of the above named negrous has ever given any trouble and have always tended to their jo s. According to none of them has ever indicated any dissatisfaction over the amount of wages at the time they are paid off by her. advised that she heard a good deal of rumor during the summer of 1942 that ELEANOR CLUBS existed in Selma, but does not believe that this rumor had any foundation in fact.

that he has heard several rumors of the existence of ELEANOR CLUBS in the past; that during the summer of 1942 he received numerous complaints to the effect that the negro maids and cooks were members of this club. He advised that both he and his sen have made an exhaustive investigation to determine if such clubs were in existence in Selma, but to onte he has not been able to uncover any activity on the part of the negroes which might lead him to believe that there is any such thing as an ELEANOR CLUB in Selma. The Chief advised that in his opinion the ELEANOR CLUBS have not advanced beyond the stage of idle rumor and gossip. He states, however, that he is constantly on the lookout for any indication that anyone is trying to organize subject organization in Selma.

Inasmuch as investigation has failed to indicate that subject erganization is in existence in Selma, or that the employees of the King Memorial Hospital are members of such an organization, no further investigation is being conducted and this case is being closed upon the authority of the Special Agent in Charge.

club" mentioned somewhere, and he believed it was in the capacity of the title of a colored women's organization. He further stated that the had mentioned a club to which she belonged on various occasions, and hought that this might be identical with the ELEANOR CLUB. He pointed out, however, that he was not sure of this and, in fact, was not certain that he had actually heard the name ELEANOR CLUB mentioned by the former domestic servant,

Charleston, had organized a club or group of colored domestic employees. He stated that the purpose for which this club was organized was for the betterment of colored domestic employees, and also for the purpose of seeking shorter hours and higher wages for such domestic employees. Stated that he had no knowledge of the name of this organization but thought that it might be the ELEANOR CLUB mentioned previously.

the wife of mentioned above, advised that her husband had advised her that he had been interviewed relative to the existence of the ELEANOR CLUB in Charleston, West Virginia. and she stated that he had told her that he had indicated that had stated that she belonged to a to be the ELEANOR CLUB. club, thought by pointed out that this was inaccurate, and she stated that the reference to the ELEANOR CLUB was not made by nointed out that she had been talking one day with a , Charleston, West Virginia, by whom had been formerly employed, and when told her of the trouble she was experiencing with advised that "I guess said. belongs to the ELEAMOR CLUB like so many of them." pointed out that to the best of her knowledge had never mentioned the existence of any club known as the ELEANOR CLUB, and pointed out further that the only person that she has ever heard mention the ELEANOR CLUB was the aforementioned and pointed out that de this remark in casual conversation when the question of the becoming rather independent was mentioned. Stated that she had no knowledge of the existence of any club known as the ELEANOR CLUB in Charleston, West Virginia.

United States Court House, Charleston, West Virginia, colored, advised that while he is quite familiar with all clubs existing for the Negro people in Charleston, West Virginia, he has never heard of any organization calling themselves the ELEANOR CIUB or any name similar to the name ELEANOR CLUB. If fered to check into the matter and did so. He was re-interviewed and again stated that he has no knowledge of any organization known as the ELEANOR CLUB.

Charleston Police Department, Charleston, West Virginia, advised that he has never heard of the existence of any club of Negro women or, in fact, of any club in Charleston, West Virginia known as the ELEANOR CLUB.

Charleston Police Department, Charleston, West Virginia, advised that he has never heard of any organization in Charleston, West Virginia known as the ELEANOR CLUB.

who is Manager of the Ferguson Theatre on Washington Street, Charleston, West Virginia, which theatre is a colored theatre, advised that he is in rather close contact with the colored situation in Charleston, West Virginia, inasmuch as the moving picture house which he manages caters exclusively to the colored people. In the desired that he has never heard of the existence of any club known as the ELEANOR CLUB.

Charleston,
West Virginia, advised that during the summer of 1941, in her of the Public Service Committee of the Charleston Y.W.C.A., she was instrumental in organizing a committee to investigate the living and wage conditions of colored domestic servants in the Charleston, West Virginia area.

pointed out that the work of this committee in no way involved the formation of any organization of any sort and stated that she herself has never heard of the existence of any club known as the ELEANOR CLUB, although she stated that all of her life she has been more or less interested in the Negro problem. She said that she herself was born in Mississippi and was, therefore, definitely a Southerner but stated further that in her opinion the lot of the Negro was a rather unenviable one. She further stated that one of the purposes of the committee mentioned above was to organize a school in which young Negresses might train to perfect themselves as domestic servants. The domestic workers that the committee passed out questionnaires to domestic workers requesting that they complete them, showing the number of hours worked, wages per day a week received, and generally, the living conditions in the life of the average colored domestic servant in the Charleston area. pointed out that it had been impossible to establish the school in which young colored girls could train for positions as domestic servants, inasmuch as the wage level has risen in Charleston to such an extent that the average individual who formerly worked as a domestic servant is now employed in war plants.

pointed out that as a result of the survey conducted by her committee relative to this matter, all sorts of rumors sprang up, and that she herself has received many bothersome telephone calls as a result of her activities on this committee.

advised that there was definitely no organization formed as the result of the work of this committee, and to the best of her knowledge no ELEANOR CLUB exists or ever did exist in the city of Charleston.

It is noted that appears to be a woman of refinement and culture, and she is known and highly respected in the city of Charleston.

Inasmuch as the original information in this case appears to have been based on inaccurate information, and inasmuch as there is no indication from the investigation that any ELEANOR CLUB exists in the city of Charleston, West Virginia, no further investigation is anticipated in this matter, and the case is being closed.

By reference from the Director's Office, I wiss accepted a call from the office of Senator Davis and talk d to a Miss Becker who wanted information concerning Eleanor Clubs.

Miss Becker stated that in connection with juvenile delinquency, they called the Children's Bureau and had been rejerred to the FBI. She further stated that friends of the Senator working with young juvenile delinquents in questioning them, were told about some regulations governing those who belonged to the Eleanor Clubs.

Miss Becker was particularly interested in learning the head of the organization and securing copies of their rules and regulations which she helieved may have been of such a nature that they might be responsible for some of the juvenile delinquency.

I informed Miss Becker that I would refer her inquiry to the proper Division. She can be reached on Extension 893, Capitol.

Please to good enough to tell me the results of your investigation is the existence of the so called bleanor Clubs in the country. I recall reading in the papers within the last weeks that you had not found any such clubs of this is so I am anxious to know. I find the constant chafter among uninformed persons about the existance of these clubs a bore & dangerous. I wish to be able to accurately say there are no such clubs, if this is your finding.

Thanking you in advance

Two Jackson negroes late last walk through the unlighted park en pregroes had concealed themselves ight were lodged in city jail as route to the General Electric Plant in the bushes for some time before night were lodged in city jail as key suspects in the brutal criminal aseault of a 22-year-old white girl Monday night in Battlefield Park.

Ope of the negroes fitted the description given by the young wothe other was said to closely answer her description. However, the negroes were not questioned last night. They were returned from Meridian where they had been arrested early Tuesany morning on a drunk charge. They were not told that they resembled the rapists. The two men are scheduled for a thorough questioning this morning.

The girl was criminally assaulted by two negroes at about 8:30 Mon-day as she hurried along a concrete where she worked. The daughter of a prominent Mississippi family was held captive for approximately 90 minutes and threatened with death by the ill-kept, swaggering rapists.

When she gained her freedom and reported the crime to Jackson police an all-out hun: for the criminals was instigated.

The girl, hysterical and bruised, was taken to police headquarters early Tuesday morning. She scannca the faces of some 10 negroes who had been picked as suspects. Failing to identify her assailants among the group, the negroes were releaseđ.

However during the day other suspects were picked up in Jackson, Rankin County and other paris of the state. Some of these gave questionable answers and were locked up in city jail for further interrogation.

Painstakingly combing the Battlefield Park area, Jackson's detec-tive bureau found the keen-edged blade which the girl said the negroes pressed to her throat dur-ing the four assaults.

They also found an army belt, believed to have been worn by one of the negroes, and a paper sack containing two empty whiskey bot-tles. Both the rapists had been drinking, the girl told police. The victim's purse, containing $93 in cash, including a $2 bill, was found to the shrubs.

As law enforcement agents vowco their determination to locate the rapists. Jackson Police Chief J. D. rapists. Jackson Police Chief J. D. Holden issued a plea to law abiding negroes. He asked them to cooperate in every way with officers and report any rumor or clue. Pointing out that it was their duty as decent members of the community, Holden said their reports would be beld confidential. would be held confidential

She screamed and fled through the park, but was overtaken and knocked to the ground. One or the negroes placed his hand over her mouth and the other medaced her with his kulfe. They dragged her across the open space to the old Civil War battlefield trenches. Then each negro criminally assaulted her as the other gagged her

SUBJECT:

ELEANOR CIUB

LAUREL, MISSISSIPPI

Rebulet May 1, 1947, which transmitted to this office a copy of a letter signed by "Joe Hodd of the Elenor Club" together with a news clipping which were furnished the Boston Office by Mr. CEDRIC FOSTER, Yankee Network news analyst.

An inquiry has been made in the vicinity of Laurel, Mississippi by Resident Agent at that place, to determine if any organization similar to the one described in the letter to Mr. FOSTER existed, and further to determine, if possible, the identity of "Job Food".

In this connection, you are advised that a check of current and past city and telephone directories fail to reveal that a person by the name of JOE HOOD resides in the city of Laurel, Mississippi. There are several "MCCDS" listed in the city directory and it was determined through a general inquiry that this is quite a common name in a section of rural Jones County. In both instances these persons are of the white race. In neither instance was there determined to be a member of the negro race by the name of JOE HOOD. It is pointed out, however, that no extensive investigation was conducted to determine the identity of the author of the letter to Mr. FCSTER.

of Laurel, advised that they have not heard any rumors or received any concrete evidence to indicate the existence of one of the so-called Eleanor Clubs, or any other organization or movement whose purported aims and purposes are similar to the Eleanor Club. Neither did these officers have any information as to the existence of any group as described in the letter to Mr. FOSTER.

A representative number of reliable negro and white informants and sources of information were contacted for the same purpose as the contact with but the results were negative. All of these persons stated that they had heard of rumors of Eleanor Clubs in 1942 and 1943, but that they had never received any rumors that such an organization existed in this particular vicinity. Those interviewed likewise stated that they had not received any information or rumor as to any group whose purpose was similar to that described in the FOSTER letter.

From the interview with the above-named law enforcement officers and from a search of official records in Jones County, Mississippi, it was determined that no unusual number of rapes or related crimes have occurred in that vicinity. Specifically, there has been but one rape case in recent years wherein the subject was a member of the negro race. This case involves one who has been twice convicted of the rape of a white woman at laurel, Mississippi. This case is pending for the second time on appeal to the Supreme Court of Mississippi. This crime occurred in 1945. During 1946 there were two rape cases in the vicinity of Laurel, but in each instance the subject was a white man and in one case the victim was a five-year-old negro child. The subject of both these latter cases are presently in the penitentiary following conviction on these charges.

It is pointed out that the rape case reflected in the news clipping forwarded to Mr. FOSTER relates to one occurring at Jackson, Mississippi during the past year, which is at this time unsolved.

In conclusion, it is pointed out that extensive investigation previously conducted in 1943 by the Jackson Office failed to indicate the actual existence of one of the Eleanor Clubs in this area, and current investigation likewise fails to substantiate the existence of one; further, that current investigation fails to indicate the existence of any racial condition of an explosive nature.

Unless advised to the contrary, no further investigation is contemplated in instant matter, but the Bureau will be promptly advised should any matter arise which might result in an explosive situation.

Re: PICKETING OF MRS. ELEANOR ROOSEVELT AT UNITED NATIONS CONVENTION, MIAMI BEACH, FLORIDA AUDITORIUM, OCTOBER 26, 1961

The following information was received from a source who has furnished reliable information in the past:

On September 25, 1961, and October 2, 9, 16, and 23, 1961, the Florida States Rights Party held meetings at the address of the President of that group, JAMES_KEITHLEY, 5318 N. W. 17th Avenue, Miami, Florida.

Discussed at these meetings was a convention which is to be held in Miami Beach, Florida, on October 26, 1961, which has to do with the United Nations convention. Mrs. ELEANOR ROOSEVELT is a scheduled speaker at this convention on October 26, 1961. A plan was formulated at the above meetings to picket Mrs. ROOSEVELT on the outside of the Miami Beach Auditorium.

Source advised that the Writing on the placards to be carried by the picketers is as follows:

"Comrades, Mrs. Roosevelt, Russia, Red China"

"Eleanor Says: UN First, US Last"

"Eleanor Roosevelt, Master of Deceit"

Source advised that the Florida States Rights Party, the John Birch Society, and the Americans for Action Party would participate in the picket, and that they expected 25 to 50 persons from each group to participate in the picket.

"MOST ADMIRED WOMAN"

Every year around Christmas-time, the Gallup Poll conducts an annual papularity contest, assigning reporters to put this question to a cross-section of the American public: "What woman that you have heard or read about, living today in any part of the world, do you admire the most?"

Last year, for the eleventh time, Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt was a shoo-in winner. What does this prove? Just this: In a society where a pro-Communist atheist and criminal sex-pervert like the late Caryl Chessman can be built up into a great national hero and an international martyr through the power of the Communist-kept press, it proves only that it is possible to build up almost anyone as a public idol.

However, certain peculiar activities of Mrs. Roosevelt deserve a great deal more publicity than they have heretofore received. Time after time, she has gone out of her way to endorse or to give assistance to known Communists. Take the case of her notorious endorsemont of Alger Hiss, in her column of August 16, 1948: "Smearing good people like Alger Hiss and Lauchlin Currie [both Soviet explanage agents] is, I think, unforgivable. . . . Anyone knowing either Mr. Currie or Mr. Hiss, who are two people whom I happen to know fairly well, would not need any denial on their part to know they are not Communists. Their records prove it."

Eleanor Roosevelt is unmistakably the wheel-horse of the Democratic Party. Without her aid, no aspirant to the Democratic Presidential nomination is supposed to stand a ghost of a chance. Her political moves pivot from a base centered within the organization known as Americans for Democratic Action (ADA). She was one of the ADA's founders and is its honorary chairman and one of its supreme potentates. Knowing her long pro-Communist record, it is inconceivable that any of the sycophantic Democratic Presidential aspirants currently clustering around this Queen Bee of the ADA could be unaware of their public responsibility to repudiate her endorsement.

GUIDELINES FOR ACTION

- 1. Write your Congressman and urge him to protest strongly against any attempt to abolish the House Un-American Activities Committee (HUAC).
- If you are a Democrat, write to the Democratic National Committee and inform them that you will not vote for any Democratic Presidential Candidate who does not categorically repudiate the endorsement of Eleanor Roosevelt.
- 3 Challenge Eleanor Roosevelt's phony "prestige" and her Red-generated publicity wherever it appears especially in the newspapers which publish her columns. Write the editor and call his attention to her unparalleled Communist-front record, as documented in this issue and in the dossier "ELEANOR'S RED RECORD."
- 4. If the Democratic Presidential Candidate you favor has any taint of Roosevelt-endorsement, write him and ask him to repudiate this endorsement—or get out. This may be your last opportunity to keep a Communist-fronter out of the White House.
- 5. Speak out now, and all through the coming election campaign especially prior to and during the National Conventions of both parties against any candidate who is soft on Communism. (Even the political apportunists will bow to public against if the public makes its opinions crystal-clear.)

KE. (O CITATIONS

Citations from 1 through 86:

Numbers 2 and 39 are the same organization but different citations. Number 34 is described in the source given (in parentheses after 34) as a primarily pacifist endeavor; GCE (which reproduced the FUC hearings — see citation 14—) cited 34 as a "communist affiliation" on p. 42 (Vol. 1), and LUC — see citation 3 — cited 34 as a "communist front" on p. 47 (Part 1).

Citation Number 6 may be properly described as an enterprise which Eleanor Roosevelt initiated with others and which was publicized by the ACPFB (citation 3); 6 was also cited as communist by GCE and LIEC (see above). Number 66 was cited in the parenthetical source after 66 as a "pro-CP theatrical enterprise" which produced "the party-line theatrical production" named.

The primary sources for all citations follow immediately after the name of the organization, enterprise or publication named; the parenthetical sources at the end of each citation are the governmental (national or state) or other official publications which have named and cited the communist-fronts listed. When no parentheses follow the citation, the source is the original letterhead, release, newspaper clipping, etc. and the designation of the organization named as a communist-front may be found below in this explanation.

There are 49 separate and distinct organizations, enterprises and publications named in the list of 86 citations. The sources citing these 49 — given below — apply equally, of course, to the additional affiliations listed under many of the citations. (For example, under number 18 — the American Youth Congress (AYC) — which lists the earliest affiliation of Eleanor Roosevelt with that organization, there are to be found an additional fourteen affiliations or evidences of support by Eleanor Roosevelt of the AYC — numbers 19 through 32 — listed in chronological order.) Abbreviations used in the citation may plways be traced back to the original full title in an earlier citation.

In the major sources for the designation of each of the 49 organizations, etc., which are named as communist-fronts (listed below) the use of an asterisk(*) indicates that the organization is on the Attorney General's list of subversive organizations. The full title of Appendix IX (IX) is given under citation number 1. Guide (G) refers to the HUAC Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications (January 2, 1957). Source (S) means that the source lised in parentheses after the citation also contains the designation of that particular organization as a communist-front.

Citations Numbers 87 through 120:

These citations are representative of Eleanor Roosevelt's brazen activities from 1927 to 1960, a span of 33 years. The earliest is Number 113; the latest is Number 117. Numbers 88 and 115 are cited "communist-fronts" and should properly be added to the previous 86 "hard-core" citations, making a total of 88, but have been placed in the second category (radical, socialist, pacifist and "mixed-breed" organizations) because of the fact that their "communist-front" complexion — as cited — is little known, even to authorities. There are 28 separate and distinct organizations, enterprises and publications represented in this list, which, when added to the 49 listed above, total 77 with which Eleanor Roosevelt has been affiliated, or about twothirds of the 120 citations listed in this report.

I'm Clad Over Recent High Court Decisions

time, when many of us have felt that the individual was losing many of his rights, it is encouraging to note the decisions of the Supreme Court upholding the Constitutional-freedoms.

The Court-at least the majority on it-seems to have redefined the ancient idea that its function is to guard the rights granted to our people in the Constitution and the Bill of Rights. This it has done in reversing the con-tempt conviction of John T. Watkins, labor leader, and the AVatkins, labor leader, and the freeing of five California decision which forever bars communist leaders convicted under the Smith Act and the granting of a new trial for the "organize" was benine others.

I also am glad that, after his long fight, John Stewart Service, former Foreign Servme officer, won a reversal of the judgment of the Court of Appeals which in June, 1956, held that Mr. Service had been rightfully dismissed as a security risk,

NEW YORK - Just at this the different Court justices acted in reversing the Communist leader's convictions, you find certain differences in their reasoning.

> For instance, two of them, Justices William Black and William C. Douglas, felt that the Smith Act is unconstitutional. I have not the space to discuss the legal points, but I think it is well worth everyone's time to read the varied opinions.

I for one, am glad that the Court has handed down a ing construed in its narrow sense, meaning that simply bringing a Communist group into being was found to be cause for indictment. The Court held the Communist Party had been organized in its present form by 1951 at the latest and that, in 1951 when the indictment was brought against the leaders, the three year statute of limi-When you study the way tations had run out.

Honorable J. Edgar Hoover Chief, Federal Bureau of Investigation Washington, D.C.

Dear Sir:

Ine New York Post of march 23, 1957, reported that you had put into the record of the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee a document bearing the label "United States Department of Justice, Federal Bureau of Investigation". The document contained the Following statement referring to the undersigned in connection with the convention of the Communist Party held in February:

"The Communists boasted of having 'impartial observers' cover the convention. However, most of these so-called 'impartial' observers were handpicked before the convention started and were reportedly headed by A.J. Muste, who has long fronted for Communists and who recently circulated an amnesty petition calling for the release of Communist leavers convicted under the Smith Act. Muste's report on the convention was as biased as could be expected. On the other hand, an observer whom the party did not handpick and who was more objective, Carl machlin, of the American civil Liberties Union, has stated that the arguments for democracy within the Party 'were merely tactical and designed to fool the public'".

So far as the record at my disposal goes your allegation that I have "long fronted for Communists" is based on two comparatively very recent happenings: 1) my participation as an "observer" at the Communist Party convention in February and my activity in getting others to serve in a similar capacity; 2) the fact that I helped to circulate a petition which was sent to President Lisenhower at Christmas time 1955 and which asked for amnesty for Communists convicted under the Emith Act and a suspension of prosecution in the case of other accused under the builth act, pending a review of the latter which the Supreme Court of the United States was then preparing to make. I shall refer to both these matters in a moment. First I wish to refer to my attitudes and activities in this field prior to December 1955 anich in your opinion appear to furnish a basis for characterizing we publicly as, one Պարևs long fronted for Communication

The second secon

Not only was I not connected with any Communist fronts during all these years but I took a leading part as the executive of the F.O.R. in analyzing and exposing the dangerous and fraudulent character of "united fronts" and in persuading the F.O.K. groups both here and in other countries not to take part in such activities as the World Council of Peace and its affiliated groups, the Stockholm Peace Petition, etc. what criticism there has been in pacifist and other peace groups during those years was to the effect that I was too "rigid" and perhaps "unreconciling" about such matters.

The F.O.R. at the same time has stoutly defended the civil liberties of Communists as well as all others, and of course with my nearty approval. From the beginning the National Council of r.O.K. has opposed the Smith Act and prosecutions under it as violating american traditions and as the wrong and ineffective way to combat the evils of Communism.

When r.O.A. or I personally have acted in this field of civil liberties, however -- as in a Mosenberg petition a few years ago and the Smith Act Amnesty petition -- we have scrupulously avoided acting through, or with organizations or committees that might be suspected as "fronts", but have acted independently, making it clear in each case that we were opposed to Communism and were defending the rights of those with whom we disagreed, not of those with whom we agreed and were collaborating.

You have made a grave charge against me and my record. You are jundoubtedly aware of the fact that your word in such matters as this carries more weight probably than that of any other person in our country. I respectfully submit that you should immediately take out of the record the allegation that I have "long fronted for Communists"

I turn now to the question of "impartial observers" at the C.P. convention. I am informed by Norman Inomas, who, as he has told you, was associated with me in approaching people to act as observers, that according to Mr. Nichols of your staff the basis for the h.s.I. thinking that we were acting as a front in this matter is that the suggestion that there be "observers" came from Mr. Simon We derson who was in charge of publicity at the U.P. convention. Mr. Inomas in his letter to you has disposed of the charge that if the idea did originate with mr. Jerson this made a "fronter" of any one who considered the idea had merit.

However, the fact of the matter is that the idea did not original with Mr. Gerson or any other Communist. It was first mentioned by one of my fellow-pacifists in my own room. It was tentatively mentioned to a couple of C.P. leaders as an idea they might explore with their colleagues. I undertook at the same time to discuss the idea with well known civil libertarians such as Norman Thomas and Roger N. Saldwin in order to check on the validity of the idea. Finding that the idea seemed meritorius, we proceeded.

If the idea that mr. Gerson originated the project was reported to you as a fact by one of your agents or another person, the report — whether by design or unintentional error — was false. If the idea that mr. Gerson was the originator was an inference, it was completely erroneous.

Inc conditions on which persons were asked if they wished to sit in as "observers" were the following: 1) observers should be persons known as opponents of Communism and as not identified with "united fronts"; 2) they should also have some record of concern for civil liberties of minority groups; 3) there was to be no veto by the C.P. of anyone asked to be an observer; 4) observers were not in effect to serve as reporters during the convention, since unfortunately reporters were not admitted to the sessions; but after the convention all observers were to be completely free jointly or individually to make any kind of reports, write any evaluations they saw fit, etc., with no censorship whatever.

Subcommittee that some observers were "handpicked" in a sense in which others such as ar. Machlin were not, is completely contrary to fact. All persons were approached by ar. Thomas or myself directly or through an intermediary. (It should be put in the record that a number of persons who were approached, who thought it a good idea, and wished to participate, declined to do so because they feared there might be precisely the kind of comment which you have in fact made and they did not wish to expose the institutions with which they were connected to the embarrassment which this causes in the atmosphere which still too largely prevails in this country and which it is presumably the duty of the pepartment of Justice to combat. If the pepartment is not in fact charged with the defense of the Constitution and in particular the bill of hights, what is its function?)

Among those who were contacted in the matter was mr. George Rundquist of the New York Civil Liberties Union. He indicated to me that he was looking for two or three board members of the N.Y. U.L.U. to act as "observers" and a day or two before the Convention reported to me that Mr. Carl Rachlin and Mr. Migdol were prepared to serve. Mr. Rachlin and Mr. Migdol received invitations by wire from the National Committee of the Communist Party to whom I gave their names and addresses in the same way precisely as anyone else who indicated readiness to participate in the project.

Your statement about the difference between mr. Machlin's evaluation of the Convention and that of the eight observers, including myself, who issued a joint statement after mr. Machlin's appearance before the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee, is very vague. I cannot but think that on second thought you will agree with me that important government officials, if they speak on such matters at all, should seek to be specific and scrupulously accurate. Your statement gives the impression that the eight vouched for it that the Communist Party had become democratic. I am enclosing herewith

However, the eight observers specifically stated that they suspended judgment as to whether the C.r.U.S.A. had achieved independence of moscow and was moving toward democratic socialism. We stated that in quer view of the very admissions made by the Convention as to past crimes and errors, only the actual behavior of Communists and the Communist Party could furnish a basis for judging what was really happening.

It is difficult not to regard it as a gratuitous insult that the impression should be given out that persons such as Dorothy Day of the Catholic Worker, George Willoughby, a Friend and director of the Central Committee for Conscientious Objectors, Alfred massler, nead of the literature department of the Fellowship of Reconciliation Lyle Tatum, a member of the Staff of the American Friends Service Committee, Roy Finch and Bayard Rustin, of the War mesisters League, Dr. Stringfellow Barr, and Bernard mosenberg would be participants in anything which involved "handpicking". They are all persons known for their integrity and independence of character. May I in particular call your attention to the fact that Mr. Rosenberg, one of the editors of Dissent magazine, who was "picked" in exactly the same way as everyone else, not only did not join in the Statement of eight observers, but made his own declaration, critical of my position, in a letter to the New York Post, something which he had every right to do?

Probably the most deplorable and ominous feature of your statement is that an office-noider of your standing and prestige should inferentially attach the label of "fronting" for Communists to the nearly fifty-distinguished Americans, known for their opposition to Communism, who in 1955 signed a petition relating to Communists convicted under the Smith Act. This means attaching this label to Mrs. Filesnor Roosevelt, Norman Inomas, the dean of Union Theological Seminary, the dean of the Chapel at Columbia University, the dean of the Boston University School of Theology and others listed in the brochur enclosed herewith. I hope you will note carefully the contents of the petition, including the dissenting opinions of distinguished Justices of the Supreme Court of the United States, on which the petition was largely based.

Any citizen is, of course, entitled the criticize the signers of such a petition but labelling them as "fronters" because they exercise their right to petition is not legitimate criticism. For an officer of the Department of Justice in any way to call in question the right to petition, not to speak of Labelling those who exercise it as "fronters", seems to me a violation of trust and the kind of action which gravely jeopardizes our democratic institutions.

This leads me, without any animosity toward you personally, Mr. Hoover, to raise two questions. In the first place, I am under the impression that according to your own Statements it is the function of the Federal sureau of Investigation to gather information, not to deliver judgments or to attempt to "give the party line", so to speak, to Congressional Committees or the general public. Have you not in this instance departed from this policy?

In the next place, if a person in your position is to speak at all in such matters, should be not refrain from stigmatizing individuals who are not on trial, who have not even been charged with any violation of law, and who obviously have no such access to channels of sublicity as you have? It is my impression that in recent years, as the result of the reaction of countless citizens against the excesses and atrocities of mcCarthyism, Congressional investigating committees have been at some pains not to give out names of citizens who were questioned at least until there was some basis for legal charges against them. To what pass have we come if a single individual — and he the head of the F.B.I. presumably charged in a special and delicate manner with the protection of citizens against attack and the defense of our liberties — can make charges against an individual in the casual manner that you have used in this case?

I raise this question not, except in a very minor degree, on my own behalf. I do have some means of publicity and a long public record of being open and above board in what I do, whatever views people may hold as to my behavior. Moreover, I have the inward protection of knowing that in what I have done and said in these matters I have acted in accordance with the Christian faith and teaching which I profess. We are taught in the Scriptures of that faith that it is the business of those who have influence or power to be especially considerate of the weak and to "take care not to diffend one of these little ones". There are, alas, a good many people in this country who have little if any means to defend themselves who have been injured, materially and spiritually, by those who have power and prestige.

It is necessary to add one final word about a matter which may come up in subsequent discussion. During the past year and a half I have been somewhat prominently involved in the process of promoting untrammeled political discussion from which no tendencies, including Communist spokesmen, are excluded. Sometimes these discussions have been under the auspices of the Fellowship of meconciliation when they have served a clear civil liberties purpose; sometimes not. I think that in insisting that all views should be publicly heard 4 am true to one of the most basic of American traditions. I think that in insisting on the other hand, as I have done, that Communists must not try to evade the public discussion of any issue, I am far from "fronting" for them. To this day I have maintained my position of not engaging in "united action" with Communists, except in this strictly limited sense of arranging for the frank and serious discussion by spokesmen of all political tendencies of all important political questions. I recognize, of course, the right of any citizen to criticize this procedure, but I am personally convinced that this is a service to truth and to the cause of freedom which is sorely beset in many parts of the world today.

I hope that I may hear from you. If you should have time to discuss these matters with me on a personal basis, I should appreciate. I should perhaps make it clear that I am conscientiously opposed to responding to summons to appear before any government official or agency engaged in investigating the political or religious opinions of myself or others.

Sincerely yours,

A.J. Muste / Krusti

A PE ITION

To the President of the United States On Amnesty for Smith Act Victims and Postponement of Trials

Dear Mr. President:

We respectfully urge you to grant an amnesty commuting the sentences of sixteen men and women now in prison under the Smith Act (Alien Registration Ac 1940) to time already served, and to use your influence to secure the postponemen trials in the 180 cases presently awaiting Trial Court or Appeals Court decisions ut the Act.

Those who present this petition are in fundamental disagreement with the philosc of the Communist Party and with essential elements in its program and are motive in their present action by their attachment to the democratic way of life and the deto maintain and strengthen it.

We call attention to Supreme Court Justice Black's description of the chara of the Smith Act and the trial of Communist Party leaders under it in his dissen opinion when appeal from the convictions under it was before the Supreme Court:

"At the outset I want to emphasize what the crime involved in this case is and a it is not. These petitioners are not charged with an attempt to overthrow the government They were not charged with non-verbal acts of any kind designed to overthrow the ernment. They were not even charged with saying or writing anything designed overthrow the government.

"The charge was that they agreed to assemble and talk and publish certain idea a later date . . .

"... The indictment is that they conspired to organize the Communist Party and to speech or newspapers and other publications in the future to teach and advocate forcible overthrow of the government."

Recently the Supreme Court itself, by agreeing to review the California Smith prosecutions, has recognized the appropriateness of a "second look" at the act.

Among the sixteen for whom we are requesting a Christmas amnesty are eld and ill persons. The indictments and convictions in these cases were carried through period of the "cold war" and in an atmosphere often marked by hysteria. Fortunately recent months conditions have changed for the better and there is a noticeable trent reaffirm the basic democratic traditions of our country.

It is our conviction that your aquiescence in our request would serve to give fur impetus to this healthy trend, would give proof of our confidence in democratic institions, would encourage and inspire our friends throughout the world and win friends. Thus, we believe, it would also contribute toward peace in the world about whyou are so deeply concerned and would be in line with the policy you set forth thro Secretary of State Dulles on Nov. 18, 1955:

"I know that no setback, no obstacle to progress will ever deter this Government our people from the great effort to establish a just and durable peace."

'ublic opinion being what it is, few will otest the conviction of the Communist titioners. There is hope, however, that in go lmer times, when present pressures, plusons and fears subside, this or some later furt will restore the First Amendment lib-Sies to the high preferred place where they ... long in a free society."

J.S. SUPREME COURT JUSTICE HUGO BLACK, in a dissenting opinion in a Smith Act case in 1951,

Distinguished Supreme Car Justices viewed the Smith Act with apprehension:

"The doctrine of conspiracy has served divers and oppressive purposes, and its broad reach can be made to do great evil. But never until today has anyone seriously thought that the ancient law of conspiracy could constitutionally be used to turn speech into seditious conduct. . . . Not a single seditious act is charged in the indictment. To make a speech unlawful because two men conceived it, is to raise the law of conspiracy to appalling proportions."

STATE ENT BY OBSERVERS AT COMMUNIST PARTY CONVENTION, NEW YORK, YEBRUARY

K()

The undersigned were "observers" at the recent Communist Party convention in New York attending one or several and in the case of some of us all sessions. The initiative for the project of having some non-Communist citizens who are in fundamental disagreement with much of Communist philosophy and program, present at the Convention and free afterward to report in any way they wished, came from A.J. Muste and others, with strong support from Norman Thomas. The suggestion was conveyed to officers of the Communist Party and accepted by them. They issued invitations to persons suggested by Mr. Muste.

Since reference has been made to these matters in the press and elsewhere, we wish to state that the sessions of the Convention were democratically conducted with vigorous discussion of all matters brought to the floor. There were many indications that no individual or group was in a position to control the convention. All documents coming out of convention committees were made available in mineographed form to delegates and observers, and were made available to the press immediately after the delegates had acted upon them. The votes on divisions in committees were reported to the delegates. So far as we could tell, Roberts Rules of Order and the Rules adopted by the convention for its own conduct were scrupulously carried out. Nominations for twenty out of 60 members of the incoming National Committee were made from the floor. There were 46 nominations for the 20 positions. The votes were widely scattered, with no one receiving more than about seventy per cent of the votes and the highest votes going to others than nationally known leaders who would presumably have been unanimously elected at old style Communist conventions.

As the press reported, the former national secretary, Eugene Dennis, in his opening report rejected the proposals of the French Communist, Jacquer Duclos, on certain key issues such as the primacy of the Communist Party of the Soviet Union. Duclos has been regarded as an important channel for conveying the views of the Soviet Communist leaders to western Parties.

RE: PATRONATO DE AYUDA AL PUEBLO ESPAÑOL

SYNOPSIS

Under auspices of PATRONATO, the Second Conference of PAYUDA AL PUEBLO ESPAÑOL" celebrated January 20, 1946, purpose being to organize financial campaign which began February 11, 1946, and terminated hay 6, 1946, with total/of $62,718.05 collected. Communist Senator JUAN LARIMELLO received and delivered to PATRONATO $5.148.42 contributed at anniversary celebration of Spanish Republic at Manhattan Center, New York City on April 7, 1946. Executive Committee of PATRONATO set out. FELIX/MONTIEL, Treasurer of PATRONATO, reportedly planning trip to Toulouse, France.

INVESTIGATIVE DETAILS

The following information concerning the Second Conference of the "AYUDA AL PUEBLO ESPANOL" has been summarized from the fanuary 26, 1946, issue of the weekly newspaper MOSOTROS, the Citical organ of the Spanish Communist front "CASA DE LA CULTURA".

The Conference was held on January 20, 1946, in the "Classe Cantineros" in Habana, Cuba. The following is a list of the reganizations and the number of delegates from each reported to have been in attendance during the Conference:

ppe of Organization	Number of	Organizations	Number of Delegate.
abor Syndicates and Do La Cultura asonic Lodges ,unish societies		82 41 Branches 22 20	495 121 74 42

Those individuals whose names are followed by an asterisk have been classified by Reliable Source C as being Communists.

It was also agreed at the Conference to direct the fellowing communications to the persons and organizations indicated:

- 1) A cable to the French Assembly, congratulating the upon their agreement to break relations with FRANCE.
- 2) A cable to the United Nations Organization in London asking that common action be taken against FRANCO:
- of Cuba; one requesting the breaking of diplomatic relations with Spain and the other asking for intervention in an effort to secure the release and repatriation of the Cuban citizen SANTIAGO ALVARAM and to offer the right of asylum to SEBASTIAN ZAPIRAIN. (It is to be noted that these two Communists have recently been sentenced to 18 and 20 years imprisonment respectively by the FRANCO Government for acts against the Spanish State;
- 1) A telegram to AGUSTIN CRUZ, Cuban Senator, congratulating him upon his efforts as head of the Hispano Cuban Commission Pro Spanish Republic in behalf of the breaking of diplomatic relations with FRANCO and in behalf of the re-establishment of the Spanish Republic.

It was also agreed at the Conference that all the organizations represented at this affair should direct cables to Mrs. ELEARCH, 2008LVALTA, requesting that she intervene in behalf of the release of SANTIAGOYALVAREZ.

Source C has advised that although the Extraordinary Carbellon of 1946, designated always by the slogans "Arms for the Guerrillas" and "For the Spanish Republic" was supposed to have terminated on April 14th, which is the anniversary of the founding of the Second Spanish Republic, the Executive Committee of the PATRONATO decided to extend the campaign until May 6, 1946, simply because the contributions were still being received in considerable mantity. The minimum quota set, $12,000, was far exceeded. By the closing day of the campaign on May 6, 1946, a total of $62,718.05 and been collected.

A breakdown of the total amounts contributed by each of the provinces is as follows:

said it was bad on the part of the Americans to have a man like that in that position. said the purpose of the conference was that citizens could make suggestions but that "they" didn't want to listen to any suggestions which might possibly lead to the Russians and us getting together on philosophy. and greed that it appeared , whom they said testified to the fact that in five years that there would only be ten percent of Americans left alive, would be in a nice safe "looney" house at that time. They then discussed the United Nations Forum meeting on March 31, 1947. ( advised she didn't know if ELEANOP COSEVELT would be able to stay for the Forum, but that she was in Washington Friday and Saturday at the A.D.A. meeting. that she would love to have some to dinner before the Forum meeting to meet Mrs. RCOSEVEIT, but it couldn't be arranged.

said she had a long talk with She said that feels that until we get a stronger United Nation we have to sacrifice just as much as Russia. Said she feels the important "honest to God" thing "to us" is not Greece democracy, but the Near East oil. said we are grabbing it and we are afraid RUSSIA will grab it from us so we invest four million dollars in Greece. said she thinks Russia ought to have a warm water port. with her. said "in time of war Russia has always been in the position of being attacked because Turkey has always let Russia's enemies through, and it isn't a matter of internationalizing the port--the port has. been internationalized all along and look what it has done to Russia". said that if we want havel bases in Greece, we should let Russia have naval bases. said, "Well. I think the worst thing we ever did was just grab our those ......" said that's the kind of thing that causes war. They agreed to see each other again at the United Nations Forum.

INITED NATIONS FORUM

, advised that the United Nations Forum had conferences at the Shoreham Hotel on March 17 and March 31, 1947, and that Mrs. ROOSEVELT spoke at the conference on March 17th. along with ALGER HISS. T-17 has advised that ALGER HISS is a nember of a Soviet espionnge ring operating in the United States.
