5TH DISTRICT COMMUNITY PROSECUTION UPDATE

On July 19, 2004, Mayor Anthony Williams and U.S. Attorney Ken Wainstein joined ANC Commissioner Kathy Henderson to celebrate "a great day in the neighborhood." The event, organized by Commissioner Henderson, was a recognition of the work of the FBI Safe Streets Task Force, which recently completed a narcotics investigation in the area of 18th and M Streets, N.E. The case resulted in the indictment of 26 individuals responsible for trafficking PCP and selling it in the area that centered in 18th and M Streets. It was the largest known PCP trafficking organization operating in the metropolitan area. The arrests paved the way for the return of a safer neighborhood. The event was capped off by the planting of a tree donated by the National Arboretum.

THE COURT REPORT

Charles County man convicted of two counts of Aggravated Assault while Armed, two counts of Possession of a Firearm During a Commission of a Crime of Violence and related firearms offenses for the 2003 shooting of two men. (Case No. F-02834-03; PSA 506)

FACTS: Troy L. Proctor, 30, formerly of the 9900 block Bunker Hill Road, Waldorf, Maryland, was convicted on July 22, 2004 by a Superior Court jury of two counts of Aggravated Assault while Armed, two counts of Possession of a Firearm during the Commission of a Crime of Violence, and various firearm related offenses, all of which stemmed from the shooting of two young men. Proctor is scheduled to be sentenced on September 10, 2004, by the Honorable Susan R. Winfield. He faces a maximum of 95 years of imprisonment as a result of the convictions.

Evidence presented at trial established that on May 3, 2003, at approximately 3:15 a.m., a Ford Crown Victoria, occupied by three young men, drove into the parking lot of the "Hogs on the Hill" restaurant, which is located in the 2000 block of Bladensburg Road, N.E. The men had just left a nearby club, The Tunnel, and were stopping in the parking lot to socialize with other club patrons who had congregated there. Shortly after parking their car, one of the individuals got out and walked into the nearby crowd. Several gunshots then sounded off. Upon hearing the gunshots, the car began to leave the lot, but stopped to allow the passenger, who had gotten out, to get back into the front passenger seat. The car then attempted to flee the scene by driving onto Bladensburg Road.

Metropolitan Police Department (MPD) Officer Garry Brown, who was positioned at a traffic post in the 2000 block of Bladensburg Road, N.E., looked in the direction of where the gunshots were fired and saw the defendant standing in the middle of Bladensburg Road pointing and firing a handgun at the Ford Crown Victoria. The vehicle crashed into a pole on the west curb of Bladensburg Road and remained at this location. The occupants of that vehicle then fled the scene. Following the shooting, Officer Brown followed the defendant as he attempted to walk away from the scene. Officer Brown broadcast a description of the gunman. In response to his broadcast, other MPD officers arrived on the scene and stopped the defendant, who matched the description broadcast by Officer Brown. The officers apprehended the defendant as he attempted to hide in the parking lot of the Days Inn, which is located approximately one half block from the shooting scene. Officer Brown subsequently identified the defendant as the person he had seen firing a handgun into the vehicle on Bladensburg Road.

Police canvassed the area and recovered a .40 caliber, semi-automatic pistol a short distance from where they apprehended the defendant. In addition, police recovered ballistic evidence from the vehicle and from the area where Officer Brown had observed the defendant firing at the vehicle. Ballistic tests revealed that these items had been fired from the gun that police recovered from the Days Inn parking lot.

Police also searched the Ford and found a .40 caliber pistol on the passenger side floor of the car. In addition, police recovered several shell casings from the "Hogs on the Hill" parking lot. Examination of those casings revealed that they had been fired from the .40 caliber pistol police had recovered from the Ford.

It was later determined that two of the individuals in the car shot at by the defendant were later treated at area hospitals for gunshot wounds to their respective shoulders. Both men made a full recovery.

Police also found Sterling Warrick, 20, of Southeast, Washington, D.C., a short distance from the "Hogs on the Hill" parking lot suffering from multiple gunshot wounds. Warrick subsequently died from those injuries. Police also learned that a second individual had been treated for gunshot wounds to his abdomen and leg at an area hospital shortly after this incident. He made a full recovery. The two individuals shot by Proctor have been charged in connection with the murder of Warrick and the non-fatal shooting of the second individual.

In announcing the conviction, U.S. Attorney Wainstein thanked members of the Metropolitan Police Department, including the lead detective, Detective William Xanten, as well as Detectives Gregory Sullivan, Dexter Martin, James King; Officers Garry Brown, Michael Lynch, Brian Wymbys, Duane Davis and Jerry Holmes; Mobile Crime Technicians Kevin Jeter, Keith Slaughter, Dwayne Mitchell, John Holzward, David Murray, Janice Brown and Salome Wilson; and Firearms Examiner Jonathan Pope. U.S. Attorney Wainstein also commended the work of Wanda Trice, who helped prepare the case for trial, and Assistant United States Attorney Ronald W. Sharpe, who indicted and tried the case.

District man pleads guilty to assault with intent to kill while armed and related offenses for shooting during botched home-invasion robbery in Trinidad, N.E.(Case No. F-05509-03; PSA 508)

FACTS: Jerry Rosser, 25, of the 800 block of Barnaby Street, S.E., Washington, D.C., pled guilty on Monday, July 26, 2004, in D.C. Superior Court to one count of Assault with Intent to Kill while Armed, one count of Assault with a Dangerous Weapon (pistol), and one count of Carrying a Pistol without a License. Rosser entered his plea on the day he was to go trial on an Indictment charging him with Assault With Intent to Kill While Armed and related offenses. As a result of the plea, Rosier faces up to forty-five years in jail and must serve at least a five-year mandatory minimum period of incarceration. He is scheduled to be sentenced by the Honorable Susan R. Winfield on September 13, 2004.

According to the government's evidence, on July 8, 2003, Rosser and three accomplices conspired to commit a home-invasion armed robbery at the home of an acquaintance of Rosser's who lived in the 1600 block of Trinidad Ave., N.E., Washington, D.C. In furtherance of the conspiracy, Rosser called the homeowner to confirm that he would be home later in the evening.

At approximately 10:30 p.m., Rosser and his accomplices arrived at the home. Two of the co-conspirators waited outside while Rosser and an accomplice knocked and were let inside. Once inside, Rosser drew a loaded 9 mm pistol from his waistband, announced, "You know what this is!" and fired a shot into the floor. At that time, the victim – a guest of the homeowner – lunged at Rosser in an attempt to disarm him. After a brief struggle, Rosser shot the victim in the head at close range. The victim fell to the ground. Rosser stood over the victim and fired more shots, striking the victim in the chest, groin, and arm. Meanwhile, Rosser's accomplice fired four shots from his own gun at two other individuals who were ducking behind a bar. These individuals were not hit. Rosser and his accomplice ran from the home. Once outside, they met up with their two co-conspirators, and the four fled the scene.

The victim was taken to Washington Hospital Center where he was admitted in critical condition. He stayed at the hospital for almost two full months, until September 5, 2003, during which time he underwent five separate surgeries to repair the damage from the gunshot wounds.

In announcing the guilty plea, United States Attorney Wainstein thanked D.C. Metropolitan Police Officers Robert Wigton, Fred Rosario, Dorian DeSantis, and Steve Pristoop, Mobile Crime Technicians Kevin Jeter, Keith Slaughter, David Murray, and Cynthia Brown, and Firearms Examiner Luciano Morales. Mr. Wainstein commended the work of Detectives Jacqueline Middleton and Michael Pavero of the Violent Crimes Branch, and Detectives Wanda Harris and William White of the Fifth District. Mr. Wainstein praised the staff at the U.S. Attorney's Office, including Paralegal Specialist Richard Cheatham, Legal Assistant Agnes Heard, and Litigation Technology Specialist Shane Ackerman. The U.S. Attorney also commended the work of former Assistant U.S. Attorney Susan Osborne, who is now with the U.S. Attorney's Office for the Southern District of Florida, and Assistant U.S. Attorney Matthew P. Cohen, who prosecuted the case.

District man sentenced to 50 years in prison for 2002 Fourth of July murder. (Case No. F-07337-02; PSA 501)

FACTS: Chaz Kelly, 23, of the unit block of V Street, N.W., Washington, D.C., was sentenced on July 23, 2004 to a total of 50 years of imprisonment by Superior Court Judge John H. Bayly, Jr. for the July 4, 2002, fatal shooting of 22-year-old Jonathan R. Howard, Jr., of Northwest, Washington, D.C., and the shooting of 65-year-old Samuel Pannell that occurred during that same incident. On May 24, 2004, a Superior Court jury convicted Kelly of First-Degree Murder while Armed, Aggravated Assault while Armed, two counts of Possession of a Firearm during the Commission of a Crime of Violence, and Carrying a Pistol without a License in a Gun-Free Zone.

Evidence presented at trial established that on July 4, 2002, Mr. Howard and Kelly were in the area of the unit block of O Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. (PSA 501). At approximately 4:00 p.m., Kelly confronted Mr. Howard in the mouth of an alley that runs perpendicular to O Street, N.W., and the two got into a verbal argument. During the argument, Kelly drew a handgun and shot Mr. Howard three times in the back as Mr. Howard attempted to run for his life. At the time of the shooting, Mr. Howard was unarmed and defenseless. Although mortally wounded, Mr. Howard ran a short distance from the mouth of the alley and then collapsed to the ground on O Street. The defendant then stood over Mr. Howard and shot him one more time as he lay helpless on the ground. During the incident, the defendant also shot Mr. Samuel Pannell one time in his left foot. At the time of the incident, Mr. Pannell had been sitting outside on his front porch. The defendant successfully fled the crime scene by driving away in his older model, American-made, station wagon.

Shortly after the shooting, emergency medical personnel arrived at the shooting scene. Mr. Pannell was transported by ambulance to Howard University Hospital where he was treated for a gunshot wound to his left foot. Unfortunately, efforts to save the life of Mr. Howard failed and he died of his injuries. On July 5, 2002, Dr. Marie-Lydie Pierre-Louis of the D.C. Office of the Chief Medical Examiner performed an autopsy on Mr. Howard. Dr. Pierre-Louis determined that the cause of death was multiple gunshot wounds and ruled the death a homicide.

In announcing the sentence, U.S. Attorney Wainstein thanked members of the Metropolitan Police Department, including the lead detective Donnita Giles, as well as Detectives Sean Caine, Dwayne Corbett, Lazaro Gonzalez, Dan Lewis, Phillippe Moore, Dwayne Partman, Edward Truesdale and Sergeant Michael Farish; Mobile Crime Technicians Martin Fosso, Charles Graham, Dawn Leary, Tony Nwani, Gerald Wills and Sergeant Deborah Hayes; Firearms Examiner Michael Mulderig; and Medical Examiner Marie-Lydie Pierre-Louis, M.D. U.S. Attorney Wainstein also commended the work of Sandra Lane, Wanda Trice, Katina Adams and LaJune Thames who assisted in the preparation of the case for trial and sentencing, and Assistant United States Attorneys Jelahn Stewart and Ronald W. Sharpe who prosecuted the case.

N.E. District man found guilty after a jury trial of distribution of cocaine and possession of marijuana. (Case No. F-2176-04; PSA 509)

FACTS: Fred McMannus of the 300 block of 56th Street, N.E. was convicted on July 13, 2004 after a jury trial, of distribution of cocaine and possession of marijuana during a buy/bust operation. McManus is scheduled to be sentenced before the Honorable Harold L. Cushenberry on September 20, 2004.

According to the Government's evidence at trial, on April 2, 2004, members of the Metropolitan Police Department were conducting a buy/bust operation in the area of 19th and Benning Rd., N.E. An undercover officer drove into the area. As she got out of her car, she was approached by the defendant who asked her "what's up?" The undercover officer replied that she was looking for some "stones." After asking if the defendant could go home with the UC, he agrees to sell her two stones. They then went to the alley behind the store and the defendant gives the undercover officer two stones in exchange for $20 in prerecorded funds. A back-up undercover officer observed the entire transaction from less than 5 feet away. The arrest team moved in and stopped the defendant within two minutes in the exact same spot. The arrest team recovered the funds from one pocket and some marijuana from the other pocket.

Partnership with HUD: The United States Attorney's Office has been working with representatives of the Department of Housing and Urban Development to develop a mechanism, similar to the one employed with DCHA, to notify HUD of individuals who reside in Section 8 housing who have committed criminal offenses on or about the Section 8 property. This will enable HUD, in conjunction with the property managers, to take appropriate action against such tenants, including evicting them from the premises for the safety of other tenants and surrounding neighborhoods
