The COURT REPORT

District Teenager Pleads Guilty to Robbing Postal Worker in Broad Daylight. (P.S.A. 702; Case No. F-2260-04)

FACTS: According to the government's evidence, on April 6, 2004, at about 10:45 a.m., defendant Anthony Cole, 18, of the 700 block of O Street, S.E., saw a uniformed U.S. Postal worker retrieving mail from a storage mailbox in the 2700 block of Langston Place, S.E. The defendant approached the Postal worker, produced and placed a BB gun to the Postal worker's side, and said, "Gimme all your money." With the gun pointed at his side, the Postal worker had no choice but to comply and gave the defendant his money, which amounted to about $60. The defendant then told the Postal worker to leave. The Postal worker got into his car, drove away, and dialed 911.

When the police arrived, the Postal worker gave a description of the defendant, whom was subsequently found hiding inside a nearby apartment inside the furnace room. Next to the defendant were the BB gun, 74 ziplocks of marijuana, and 23 ziplocks of crack cocaine. The defendant admitted that the drugs were his, and that he intended to sell them.

On June 29, 2004, Cole pled guilty in D.C. Superior Court to one count of Robbery in connection with his holding up the Postal worker in broad daylight, and one count of Possession with Intent to Distribute Cocaine. Cole faces a maximum prison term of 45 years when sentenced by the Honorable Wendell P. Gardner, Jr. on September 14, 2004.

Assistant United States Attorney Catherine Motz prosecuted the case on behalf of the government.

S.E. District Man Sentenced to Fifty Years in Prison for Brutal Murder of a Great-Grandmother. (P.S.A. 704; Case No. F-7516-02)

According to the government's evidence, during the morning hours of Sunday, November 17, 2002, the defendant Marcus A. Graham, 21, of 3432 25th Street, S.E., went to church with his family. While at church, the defendant became involved in an argument with his wife about money. After the defendant stormed out of the church he decided to rob one of his elderly neighbors, Ms. Lucille Batchelor. When he knocked on his neighbor's door, Ms. Batchelor (a mother of three children, grandmother to eleven grandchildren and great-grandmother to eight great-grandchildren), invited him into her home located in the 3400 block of 25th Street, S.E. After she excused herself for a moment, the defendant began to go through her purse. As he was stealing her money and credit cards, Ms. Batchelor came back into the room and caught the defendant in the act of stealing her money. When she came toward him, the defendant tripped her, grabbed her walking cane and began to beat her in the head repeatedly. When Ms. Batchelor went to her knees, the defendant grabbed her body and repeatedly smashed her head against the edge of her dining room table. When the defendant finished, Ms. Batchelor fell to the floor. The defendant then went to Ms. Batchelor's kitchen, got a steak knife, and plunged the steak knife into Ms. Batchelor's still beating heart. The defendant subsequently attempted to use Ms. Batchelor's stolen credit cards to steal more money from her. After his arrest, the defendant offered to pay another person to come to court and provide a false alibi.

On May 7, 2004, a D.C. Superior Court jury found Graham guilty of two counts of First Degree Felony Murder, one count of Second Degree Murder, Armed Robbery of a Senior Citizen, First Degree Burglary, and Obstruction of Justice. On July 7, 2004, he was sentenced by D.C. Superior Court Judge John H. Bayley, Jr. to fifty years of incarceration for the November 17, 2002, brutal murder of Ms. Lucille Batchelor.

Assistant United States Attorneys Karen L. Melnik and Stephen J. Pflieger prosecuted the case on behalf of the government.

District Man Sentenced to 25 Years for Shooting Man During Botched Robbery of Chinese Carryout. (P.S.A. 704; Case No. F-5035-03)

The evidence at trial showed that on August 18, 2003, at 3:30 p.m, Damion Reeves, 22, of 1915 Ridge Place, S.E., carried an illegal semi-automatic pistol into the Wah Luck Chinese carryout restaurant at 1565 Alabama Avenue, S.E. Reeves demanded money from two customers, and when they did not give him any, he hit each of them on the forehead with the butt of the gun. Reeves then shot a third customer, before two other customers tackled Reeves and wrestled the gun away from him. As Reeves tried to escape from the restaurant, the customers pulled him back inside, locked the door, and detained him until the police arrived. The jury rejected Reeves's defense at trial that the customers, all of whom were friends, started a fight with him.

On March 18, 2004, Reeves was convicted by a D.C. Superior Court jury of Assault With a Dangerous Weapon, two counts of Assault With Intent to Rob While Armed, and related weapons offenses. On July 14, 2004, he was sentenced by Judge Thomas J. Motley to 25 years in prison for shooting one person, and assaulting two others during a botched robbery of a Chinese carryout restaurant.

Assistant United States Attorney Catherine Motz prosecuted the case on behalf of the government.

N.E. District Man Pleads Guilty to Voluntary Manslaughter While Armed (P.S.A. 604; Case No. F-4408-03)

According to the government's evidence, on March 26, 2003, at approximately 12:22 a.m., members of the Seventh District Metropolitan Police Department responded to the 3400 block of 22nd Street, S.E., Washington, D.C., for a report of a shooting. Upon arriving at the scene, Antoin Hayes, was lying on the ground suffering from multiple gunshot wounds to the body. Mr. Hayes was subsequently pronounced dead at 1:21 a.m., at the Washington Hospital Center.

Further investigation revealed that on March 26, 2003, witnesses were in the 3400 block of 22nd Street, S.E. They stated that the decedent, and someone other than defendant Tyrone Scott, 23, of 4417 Edson Place, N.E., had been involved in a lengthy verbal and brief physical altercation. That altercation had subsided, when witnesses heard a gunshot, causing them to look in the defendant's direction. At this time, witnesses observed the defendant, whom they knew as "Ty," pointing a gun at Mr. Hayes. The defendant then fired two more times at Mr. Hayes, causing Mr. Hayes to fall to the ground. The defendant then fled the scene.

On July 1, 2004, Scott pled guilty in D.C. Superior Court to Voluntary Manslaughter While Armed for the shooting death of Antoin Hayes. Scott faces up to thirty years in prison when he is sentenced before the Honorable Robert I. Richter on September 21, 2004.

Assistant United States Attorney Karen L. Melnik prosecuted the case on behalf of the government.

District Man Found Guilty of 2002 Shotgun Murder in Southeast (P.S.A. 702; Case No. F-7465-02)

The evidence presented at trial established that in the early morning hours of November 3, 2002, William Russell Black, 22, formerly of the 1600 block of Benning Road, N.E., had been fighting with his cousin in the 2700 block of Bruce Place, S.E. Black vowed to kill his cousin and members of his cousin's family, and later returned to the block with a shotgun to make good on his threats. He attempted to force his way into his cousin's apartment, but was unsuccessful. Black then walked outside and spotted Holliway, with whom he had a separate feud. He stalked up behind Holliway, as he was walking away down a sidewalk with a friend. In view of several witnesses, including a bystander that yelled at Black not to do it, Black fired the shotgun into the chest of the unarmed victim.

On July 8, 2004, a D.C. Superior Court jury found Black guilty of Second Degree Murder for fatally shooting Gerald Holliway, 22, with a shotgun. Black faces up to life imprisonment when he is sentenced before Judge Patricia Broderick on September 24, 2004.

Assistant United States Attorney Robert Bowman prosecuted the case on behalf of the government.

Southeast Man Pleads Guilty to Murder in the First Degree While Armed (PSA 708; Case No. F-1962-02)

According to the government's evidence, on January 29, 2002, at approximately 8:00 p.m., the decedent Donta Manning was in a park located adjacent to the 3000 block of Martin Luther King, Jr., Avenue, S.E., with numerous individuals. The defendant Yusef Odemns, 22, of the 600 block of Raleigh Place, S.E., entered the park with a .9mm pistol in his hand and began shooting. The defendant fired several shots in the direction of the decedent Donta Manning. The decedent began to run through the park away from the defendant. The defendant continued to shoot at the decedent while chasing him through the park. The decedent, who had been shot in his left torso, fell to the ground in the middle of the 3000 block of Martin Luther King, Jr., Avenue, S.E., and was lying on his back. The defendant ran over to the decedent, stood overtop of him, and fired one fatal shot in his head. The defendant then fled the scene. The defendant, after premeditation and deliberation, specifically intended to kill the decedent Donta Manning.

On July 16, 2004, pursuant to the plea agreement, Odemns plead guilty before D.C. Superior Court Judge Patricia A. Broderick, to one count of Murder in the First Degree While Armed (Premeditated), in connection with the murder of the decedent Donta Manning on January 29, 2002. He was sentenced that same day to a period of incarceration of 30 years.

Assistant United States Attorney Karla-Dee Clark prosecuted the case on behalf of the government.

Metropolitan Police Department Officer Convicted of Simple Assault During Off-Duty Encounter With Civilian (PSA 314; Case No. F-7464-03)

The government's evidence at trial showed that on May 27, 2000, at approximately 2:55 a.m., Barron Brown, 45, a Metropolitan Police Department Officer with the Special Operations Division, was waiting in his personal Suburban truck at a traffic light at the corner of 13th & N Streets, N.W. As the complainant turned that corner heading into an Amoco gas station, the defendant gave a hard stare at the complainant, and the complainant returned the hard stare. The complainant decided to drive a little distance past the gas pumps. When he stopped his car, he noticed that the defendant had backed up his truck into the gas station and had also parked. The defendant, who was off-duty and dressed in plain clothes, got out of his truck and approached the complainant's driver's side door. The defendant cursed at the complainant while he was sitting in his car, wanting to know why he was staring at him. The defendant then pulled out from his waistband a black handgun, pointed it at the complainant's face at close range, and forcefully shoved the barrel of that gun into the complainant's left cheek. The defendant continued to curse at the complainant and said "All I have to do is pull the trigger." The complainant, in an effort to distract the defendant said "There's a cop coming." To the complainant's surprise the defendant said "I'm a cop mfer." The complainant begged a couple of times for permission to leave and the defendant replied that he would tell the complainant when he could leave. Shortly thereafter, the defendant said that the complainant could go. The defendant returned to his personal truck and drove away.

The complainant, suffering from a bleeding cut to his left cheek, followed the defendant's truck and obtained his license tag number. Within a few minutes thereafter, the complainant flagged down an on-duty Metropolitan Police Department officer, reported the offense, and gave the officer the license tag number of the suspect's Suburban truck and a description of the suspect. Further investigation revealed that the license tag number and Suburban truck were registered to and owned by Barron Brown. Less than one week after this incident, the defendant admitted to a detective that he was involved in an altercation with the complainant at the gas station at 13th & N Streets on May 27, 2000, and that he had his gun and assaulted the complainant. The defendant then informed the detective that he was a police officer. Approximately two weeks after this incident, the defendant also admitted to another member of the Metropolitan Police Department that he had a verbal altercation with the victim. The defendant further bragged that the Internal Affairs Division could not locate the complainant.

On July 15, 2004, Brown was found guilty by a D.C. Superior Court jury of Simple Assault of a civilian at 13th & N Streets, N.W., on May 27, 2000. He is scheduled for sentencing on September 27, 2004, before the Honorable Maurice A. Ross and faces a possible maximum prison sentence of 180 days in jail.

Assistant United States Attorney Karla-Dee Clark prosecuted the case on behalf of the government.
