THE COURT REPORT

Jon Robinson and Dyandra Demorais pled guilty to Second Degree Murder while Armed before the Honorable Patricia A. Broderick. (PSA 401; Case Nos. F-289-04, F-290-04)

FACTS: On May 14, 2004, Dyandra Demorais, age 17, of Washington, DC pled guilty to Second Degree Murder While Armed and on May 28th, 2004, Jon Robinson pled guilty to Second Degree Murder While Armed for a murder and that was committed during the commission of a robbery on January 11, 2004, at the Motel Six located in the 6000 block of Georgia Ave., N.W.

According to the government's evidence at the plea hearing, on January 11, 2004, at approximately 5:00 p.m., the decedent, Hector Rivera, met defendant Demorais who agreed to accompany him to a local motel in the area. When Defendant Demorais and Mr. Rivera arrived at the motel, they obtained a room using his credit card. Defendant Demorais secretly called her boyfriend, co-defendant Jon Robinson, and told him that she was at the motel with Mr. Rivera. Defendant Demorais told her boyfriend that she wanted to rob Rivera and asked for his assistance. Shortly, thereafter, Mr. Rivera went to the desk clerk inquiring about the availability of prophylactics. The clerk told him that none were available at the motel, but could be purchased at the store near by. Defendant Demorais and Mr. Rivera left the motel. As they exited the motel, co-defendant Robinson entered and had a brief conversation with the defendant. Defendant Demorais gave the room key to co-defendant Robinson, who went to the second floor of the motel to wait for defendant Demorais to return with the decedent. The Motel Six was equipped with surveillance cameras throughout the motel, and the encounter between the defendants was recorded. When Mr. Rivera and Defendant Demorais returned to the motel, the clerk, who had observed Defendant Demorais give the room key to co-defendant Robinson, tried to warn Mr. Rivera that he thought the two intended to rob him. However, Mr. Rivera continued to the second floor where co-defendant Robinson, who was armed with a handgun, met him. Co-defendant Robinson demanded that Rivera give him all his property and eventually shot him. Defendant Demorais then removed all his property, including his credit card as he lay dying from a gunshot wound to the stomach.

After taking the property from the decedent, Defendant Demorais used his credit card to buy gifts for her friends and attempted to obtain a pin number from the credit card company. Defendant Demorais bragged to others about her involvement in the robbery and shooting. The decedent's property was recovered from the room occupied by the defendants as well as the purchases made by the defendant using the decedent's credit card.

Sentencing for both defendants is scheduled for July 16, 2004, in front of the Honorable Patricia Broderick. The defendants face a possible maximum sentence of 40 years, with a five-year mandatory period of incarceration.

Assistant United States Attorney Teresa Howie investigated the case and represented the government at the plea hearing.

Desmond Singh was sentenced to Second Degree Murder and other related offenses before the Honorable Russell Canan. (PSA 409; Case No. F-3154-02)

FACTS: On May 7, 2004, Desmond Singh, age 32, of Gaithersburg, Maryland, was sentenced to 10-30 years for Second Degree Murder, with all but 10 years suspended. The court also sentenced the defendant to 20 months to 5 years, consecutive, for Carrying a Pistol Without a License.

On January 23, 1999, the defendant and two friends went to a nightclub, formerly called "Kytur," located in the 3800 block of Georgia Avenue, N.W. The defendant and his two cousins paid a $5.00 cover charge and entered the club. Once inside, they did not like the music, and they asked the bouncer at the door, John Odero, for a refund. When Mr. Odero refused, a fight ensued which was eventually broken-up. The defendant then retrieved a gun from his cousin's car and shot Mr. Odero once through the heart.

Former Assistant United States Attorney, Diana Harris Epps conducted the grand jury investigation and Assistant United States Attorney Robert Little represented the government at trial and sentencing.

Timothy Smith was found guilty of Assault with Intent to Kill While Armed and other related offenses and co-defendant, Dewayne Richardson, was found guilty by the same jury of Mayhem While Armed and other related offenses before the Honorable Erik Christian. (PSA 407; Case Nos. F-3134-03 and F-5186-03)

FACTS: On May 10, 2004, Timothy Smith, age 36, of the 4200 block of Illinois Avenue, NW, Washington, DC was found guilty by a jury of the Superior Court of the District of Columbia of Assault with Intent to Kill while Armed, Mayhem while Armed, Armed Robbery, Aggravated Assault while Armed, and Carrying a Dangerous Weapon for his role in the May 14, 2003, robbery and stabbing of a District of Columbia man. On May 11, 2003, his co-defendant, Dewayne Richardson, age 42, of the 4100 block of 5th Street, NW, Washington, DC, was also found guilty by the same jury of Robbery, Mayhem while Armed, Aggravated Assault while Armed, and Assault with a Dangerous Weapon.

At trial, the government presented evidence to show that defendant Timothy Smith lured the complainant to his home under the guise of wanting to sell him jewelry. Upon the complainant driving up into the 4200 block of Illinois Avenue, NW, both defendants got inside the complainant's car. Timothy Smith sat in the front passenger seat and Dewayne Richardson in the back passenger seat. When the complainant turned to Timothy Smith to see the jewelry he had for sell, Timothy Smith pulled out a knife and robbed the complainant of his jewelry and money. The armed robbery quickly turned into a brutal assault when Dewayne Richardson told Timothy Smith to stab and kill the complainant. Initially, Timothy Smith stabbed the complainant in the neck. As the complainant struggled to getaway, Dewayne Richardson held the back of the complainant's shirt attempting to prevent him from leaving. While Mr. Richardson held the complainant, Mr. Smith stabbed the complainant six times in the chest. Miraculously, the complainant was able to escape from the car and into an intersection where several good Samaritans helped him. The complainant survived his injuries and provided police information that led to the arrest of both defendants.

Timothy Smith faces a maximum of 65 years incarceration. Dewayne Richardson faces a maximum of 45 years incarceration. Both defendants will be sentenced on July 23, 2004.

Assistant United States Attorney Michelle Jackson investigated the case and represented the government at trial.

Saul Lazo was found guilty of Assault With Intent to Kill while Armed and other related offenses before the Honorable Erik Christian. (PSA 403, Case No. F-862-04)

FACTS: On May 21, 2004, Saul Lazo, age 22, of Washington, D.C. was found guilty of Assault with Intent to Kill While Armed, Aggravated Assault while Armed, and Carrying a Dangerous Weapon. According to the government's evidence at trial, on February 6, 2004, at approximately 2:45 p.m., the victim and a friend were walking along the street when they encountered the Defendant and several other Latino individuals in or near a car parked in the vicinity of Illinois Avenue and Jefferson Street, N.W. The victim did not know or recognize any of these people. A male soon got out of the car and inquired of the victim whether he was "VL," the abbreviation for the Latino street gang "Vatos Locos." After replying that he was not, the victim saw this person produce a knife. The victim and his friend immediately began running; while the friend ran out of the area, the victim ran into a barbershop located at 5405 Georgia Avenue, N.W. He began pleading with numerous barbers and patrons to help him because he was being chased. Moments later, several individuals entered the shop, began screaming at the victim, and at least one started punching and kicking him. Shortly thereafter, the Defendant joined this attack by repeatedly slashing at the victim's head and torso with an unknown long, sharp, metallic object with a yellow handle, using both underhand and overhand stabbing motions. A larger group of Latino men and women came into the shop during this attack, cheering the victim's beating. These individuals are believed to be members of the gang "STC," a.k.a. "Street Criminals," or "Street Thug Criminals." The attack ended only after a female was heard to say, "That's not him," and, "Sorry, Miguel." By this time, one or more of the witnesses in the shop managed to push their way outside, and flagged down a passing police cruiser. When a uniformed officer got out to investigate, a witness pointed to the Defendant, who wore a blue hooded sweatshirt and began sprinting away from the barbershop while the entire group of Latinos exited. The witness also stated, essentially, that the Defendant had just stabbed someone in the barbershop. The officer immediately gave chase on foot. While following the Defendant, the officer saw him hand a long, metal object to an unidentified person standing in the 5400 block of Illinois Avenue. Another officer, who had followed the chase, finally stopped the Defendant as he tried to cut through a private yard. The first officer never lost sight of the Defendant from the time he first gave chase to the time of the stop. After conducting two separate show-up identifications with eyewitnesses from the barbershop, police arrested the Defendant for the vicious stabbing attack.

Lazo faces 30 years on the Assault with Intent to Kill while Armed, 30 years on the Aggravated Assault, and five years on Carrying a Dangerous Weapon. Sentencing is scheduled for August 6, 2004 before Honorable Erik Christian.

Assistant United States Attorney Chad Sarchio investigated the case and represented the government at trial.

Angela Jackson and Albert Brown pled guilty to Attempted Robbery before the Honorable Wendell Gardner. (PSA 414, F-1616-04 and F-1617-04)

FACTS: On May 26, 2004, Angela Jackson, age 24, of Washington, D.C. and Albert Brown, age 32, also of Washington, D.C. pled guilty to Attempted Robbery. In addition, Albert Brown pled guilty to Domestic Simple Assault and Threats from an incident that occurred in the Third District in February of 2004. According to the government's evidence at the plea hearing, on March 10, 2004, at approximately 10:00 p.m., MPD officers were summoned to Meridian Hill Park, near the 2300 block of 15th Street, N.W., for a report of a robbery in progress. Once there, officers located the victim and an eyewitness to the robbery. The victim explained that a man and a woman had approached him from behind, thrown him to the ground, and ultimately taken a number of items from his person, including an outer jacket, a button down shirt, and a Walkman. During the robbery, they essentially demanded his money as well, and the victim was poked repeatedly in the face and leg with a knife (causing no observable injuries). An eyewitness who happened to be walking alongside the park overheard some of the struggle, and saw the robbery almost exactly as the victim described it. He could not specifically see whether a weapon was involved from his nearby vantage point. He also told police that he saw the woman place the items taken from the victim in what appeared to be a bag, and watched Brown appear to drop the bag near a wall in the park. He called the police during the robbery and stayed on the line with them until they arrived on the scene. The eyewitness was able to direct the police to this bag, which contained a jacket and shirt the victim later identified as his. Defendant was stopped trying to exit the park, along with a number of individuals possibly matching the male robber's description. The victim identified Defendant without hesitation or equivocation during a show-up identification procedure. Recovered from Defendant's person in a search incident to his arrest was a Walkman, which the victim also identified as his.

Defendant Jackson faces three years on the Attempted Robbery and Defendant Brown faces three years on the Attempt to Robbery, six months on the Threats, and 180 days on the Domestic Violence Assault. The defendant's sentencing is scheduled for August 2, 2004 before the Honorable Wendell Gardner.

Assistant United States Attorney Chad Sarchio investigated the case and negotiated plea.
