

FSA County Committee Election - Eligibility to Vote and Hold Office as a County Committee Member

Prospective Voter Requirements

A person who meets the requirements in Numbers 1 or 2 below, plus Number 3 is eligible to vote.

1. Be of legal voting age and have an interest in a farm or ranch as either of the following:
 - an owner, operator, tenant, or sharecropper; or
 - a partner in a general partnership or member of a joint venture that has an interest in a farm as an owner, operator, tenant, or sharecropper.
2. Not of legal voting age, but supervises and conducts the farming operations on an entire farm.
3. Eligible to participate in any FSA program that is provided for by law, regardless of the status of funding.

Discrimination Prohibited

No person shall be denied the right to vote because of race, color, national origin, sex, religion, age, disability, political beliefs, sexual orientation, or marital or family status.

Types of Eligible Voters

Individual Voter

An individual voter may be one or more of the following:

- is eligible to vote on one's own right;
- is a partner of a general partnership;
- is a member of a joint venture;
- represents only oneself; or
- is a spouse listed on a property deed.

Nonindividual Voter

A nonindividual voter is a legal entity, such as a:

- corporation, estate, trust, limited partnership, or other business enterprise, excluding general partnerships and joint ventures; or
- state, political subdivision of a state, or any state agency.

Only the designated representative may cast a vote for the entity.

Interpretation of Voting Eligibility for Spouses in Community Property States

In community property states, the spouse of an eligible voter is eligible to vote.

Joint Ownership, Joint Venture, and General Partnership

The following are eligible voters:

- each owner of a joint ownership;
- each member of a joint venture; and
- each partner of a general partnership.

Native American Tribal Lands

Every member of a Native American tribe is considered a landowner if the land in question is tribally owned or held in trust for the tribe by the United States. Members of Native American tribes holding agricultural land are eligible to vote if they meet the age requirement.

Voting Limitations

Local Administrative Areas

A county or area served by the county committee is divided into local administrative areas (LAA). Each LAA is represented by one member on the county committee. A person may vote in only one LAA in each county or area.

Multiple Farm Interests in Same County or Area

Eligible voters with an interest in separate farms in more than one LAA in the same county or area may only cast one ballot. Such

Fact Sheet

FSA County Committee Election - Eligibility to Vote and Hold Office as a County Committee Member voters may choose to vote in any one LAA in which they have an interest.

Different Counties or Areas

Eligible voters with separate farming interests in more than one county are eligible to participate in the election conducted for each county committee. Participation is limited to the LAA in which the farming interests are located. Only one vote may be cast in each county.

Eligibility to Hold Office

To hold office as a county committee member, a person must meet the basic eligibility requirements listed below:

1. A person must be of legal voting age and meet either of the following conditions:
 - be eligible to vote as an individual or member of a general partnership or joint venture in the LAA in which the person is a candidate; or
 - represent a legal entity, other than a general partnership or joint venture, that is eligible to vote in the LAA in which the person is a candidate and meet each of the following conditions:
 - be designated by the corporation, limited partnership, estate, trust, or other business enterprise to be its sole candidate for membership on the applicable committee; and

- be a corporation stockholder or authorized representative for an heir to an estate, a beneficiary of a trust, or an individual having an ownership interest in any entity, excluding general partnerships and joint ventures.

2. A person must reside in the LAA in which the person is a county committee candidate.

NOTE: In some cases, the county committee may waive this requirement. Check with your local county committee.

3. A person must not have been:
 - removed or disqualified from the office of county committee member, alternate, or employee;
 - removed for cause from any public office or have been convicted of fraud, larceny, embezzlement, or any other felony; or
 - dishonorably discharged from any branch of the armed services.

NOTE: The state committee or FSA Administrator, Washington, D.C., may waive the requirements in Number 3.

People uncertain about their eligibility to vote in the county committee election should contact their local FSA office. Eligibility to vote must be determined in order for the vote to count in the election.

During the election period, individuals not receiving a ballot in the mail may obtain a ballot directly from the county office.

The United States Department of Agriculture (USDA) prohibits discrimination in its programs on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, religion, age, disability, political beliefs, sexual orientation, or marital or family status. (Not all prohibited bases apply to all programs.) Persons with disabilities who require alternative means for communication of program information (braille, large print, audiotape, etc.) should contact USDA's TARGET Center at 202-720-2600 (voice and TDD).

To file a complaint of discrimination, write USDA, Director, Office of Civil Rights, Room 326-W, Whitten Building, 1400 Independence Avenue, SW, Washington, D.C., 20250-9410, or call (202) 720-5964 (voice and TDD). USDA is an equal employment opportunity employer.