

FORM 1065

Since Tax Year 1986, Internal Revenue Service (IRS) has offered a voluntary program for Electronic/Magnetic Media Filing of Form 1065, U.S. Partnership Return of Income to the business community as a means of filing business returns. Beginning on March 15, 2000, IRS will use a new system, the Electronic Management System (EMS), that will accept Form 1065, Schedules K-1(s) and related forms and schedules electronically. EMS will allow partnership returns to be transmitted directly to IRS.

WHO CAN PARTICIPATE

Partnership: A partnership that engages in a trade or business or has gross income derived from sources in the United States.

Transmitter: A firm, organization or individual who transmits returns directly to the IRS electronically.

Software Developers: A firm, organization or individual who develops software for use in preparing returns according to IRS specifications and transmitting returns to the IRS electronically.

HOW TO PARTICIPATE

- Submit Form 9041, Application for Electronic/Magnetic Media Filing of Business and Employee Benefit Plan Returns, to the IRS Austin Service Center for processing.

Note: For Tax Year 1999, all first time filers and those who transmitted in previous years, will need to submit a new Form 9041.

- Testing Process-Testing is mandatory for all participants who develop software and transmit returns.

METHODS OF FILING FOR TAX YEAR 1999

Electronically

- Transmit your return to EMS,
- Submit your return to a transmitter, or
- Purchase and use “off-the-shelf” software (when available).

BENEFITS

Confidence

- Acknowledgement file will identify which returns have been accepted, rejected or identified as duplicates.

Speed

- Electronic Acknowledgement within 2 business days.
- Minimal hands-on processing means no paperwork delays.

FUTURE INITIATIVES

Section 1224 of the Taxpayer Relief Act of 1997 authorizes the Internal Revenue Service to require partnerships with more than 100 partners to file their Partnership Return on magnetic media. The IRS released draft regulations on October 23, 1998, relating to the mandatory filing requirements for partnership returns. The final regulations have been prepared and are awaiting approval. The regulations would delay the mandate, and apply to partnership returns for taxable years ending on or after December 31, 2000. Please refer to one of the following resources for more information regarding the changes to the proposed regulation.
