OVERSEAS SECURITY ADVISORY COUNCIL (OSAC) PROGRAMS

(TL:DS-72; 01-26-2001)

12 FAM 061 COUNTRY COUNCILS

(TL:DS-72; 01-xx-2001)

The Overseas Security Advisory Council's Country Council Program is designed to assist the U.S. private sector in establishing "councils" in selected foreign cities to:

(1)   Exchange unclassified security information;

(2)   Encourage managers of U.S. enterprises abroad to organize themselves to cope with security problems and threats; and

(3)   Promote cooperation with regard to security issues of mutual concern.

12 FAM 062 COMMITTEES

(TL:DS-72; 01-26-2001)

The Overseas Security Advisory Council (OSAC) has established a number of committees to address specific security areas within the private sector. The committees are:

(1)   Committee on Transnational Crime;

(2)   Committee for Protection of Information and Technology;

(3)   Committee for Security Awareness and Education; and

(4)   Committee for Country Councils Support.

12 FAM 063 ELECTRONIC DATA BASE

(TL:DS-72; 01-26-2001)

The Overseas Security Advisory Council (OSAC) and the Diplomatic Security Service (DS/DSS) have developed a specialized data base to disseminate timely information on problem areas of the world. With this equipment, a private-sector member with a computer, modem and a telephone can obtain current threat information and find out where to seek local assistance in most areas of the world.
