The Special Bibliography Series provides students, faculty, analysts, and area specialists with comprehensive subject coverage of major topics and geographical areas addressed in the curricula and research programs of the Air University. Compiled and edited by the staff of the Air University Library, each bibliography reflects selected book holdings (including GPO publications); periodical articles; military and defense document holdings present in the library's collection. The series began in 1953. Since that time, over 1500 individual titles have been published.

This special bibliography on Civil-Military Relations was compiled and edited by A. Sue Goodman, library staff specialist on Civil-Military Relations and bibliographic liaison officer to the Air War College.

Since WWII we have witnessed a general downward trend in the stature--and status--of the professional military in the U.S. defense establishment and decisionmaking process. In the Vietnam war civilians supervised the smallest tactical details. There are no sure answers to the dilemma, but there is a strong need for unquestioned integrity at the top levels of the military structure.
