IRC sections 401(a)(11) and 417(c) and Regs. section 1.401(a)-20 Q&A 8.
366, 367	Section of the plan should be amended to provide that the benefit to be paid to the surviving spouse of a participant who dies before the annuity starting date will be determined as follows. If the
III.b.i.	participant dies after attaining earliest retirement age under the plan, the benefit may not be less than the benefit that would be payable to the survivor if the participant had retired with an immediate qualified joint and survivor annuity of the day before the participant's death. If the participant dies on or before earliest retirement age, the benefit may not be less than the benefit that would be payable to the survivor if the participant had separated from service at the earlie of actual separation or death, survived until the earliest retirement age, retired at that time with an immediate qualifie joint and survivor annuity, and died on the day thereafter. IRC section 417(c)(1) and Regs. section 1.401(a)-20 Q&A
368	Section of the plan should be amended to provide that the annuity to be provided to the surviving spouse of a participant who dies before the annuity starting date will have a value that is not lest
III.b.ii.	than 50 percent of the participant's nonforfeitable account balance, including the proceeds of insurance on the participant's life, as of the date of the participant's death. No more than a proportional share of those contributions that may not be forfeited at death (e.g., employee contributions) may be used to satisfy this requirement. IRC section

369	Section of the plan should be amended to provide that the surviving spouse may direct the commencement of payments under the qualified preretirement survivor annuity no later than the month in
III.c.i.	which the participant would have attained the earliest retirement age under the plan. IRC section 417(c) and Regs. section 1.401(a)-20 Q&A 22.
370	Section of the plan should be amended to provide that the surviving spouse may direct the commencement of payments under the qualified preretirement survivor annuity within a reasonable time
III.c.ii.	after the participant's death. IRC section 417(c) and Regs. section 1.401(a)-20 Q&A 22.
371	When payments under a qualified preretirement survivor annuity begin earlier or later than the earliest retirement age, the plan must make reasonable actuarial adjustments to reflect the early or delayed
III.d.	payment. Section of the plan should be amended accordingly. Regs. section 1.401(a)-20 Q&A 19.
372	A defined benefit plan may not charge a participant for the cost of a qualified preretirement survivor annuity (QPSA) (for example, by reducing the participant's benefit) prior to the later of the time the plan allows the
III.e.	participant to waive the QPSA and when the plan gives the participant notice of the right to waive the QPSA. Section of the plan should be amended accordingly. Regs. section 1.401(a)-20 Q&A 21.
