Dear Sir,

Do not change standards for content for MADE IN THE U.S.A. labels. I want the label to tell me what is in what I am buying.

Corporations spend billions advertising their labels; Pepsi Cola, Coca Cola, Chevrolet, Ford, Calvin Klein, Ralph Lauren, etc. in order to get their money for their products. If Coca-Cola makes the drinks but it was put into a Pepsi-Cola can and Pepsi-Cola get the money instead of Coca-Cola, Coca-Cola will be mad.

I want to pay my money to corporation and people who manufacture products the way I want. I do not want to be defrauded by deceptive labeling. Keep the standards for MADE IN THE U.S.A. labeling the same.

Sincerely,
Christel Korda
