

How can you possibly be considering items, only partially made in the United States, to be labeled "Made-in-the-U.S.A."? If they are 20-50 or 75% made here, then they should be labeled in just that manner.

Do the right thing and reject the original proposal.

Sincerely,

Mary Lou Hakenjos

