Dear Sir,

I am writing to you in regard to your Aug. 11 ruling about the "Made-in-the-U.S.A" label.

My husband and I make a concerted effort to purchase products made in this country. It is becoming more difficult each day, and we are disappointed in that. Supermarket shopping now takes twice as long with reading the labels as to where the item was manufactured. "Distributed by" doesn't put any ice with us.

Therefore I would like you to keep the "Made-in-the-U.S.A" label to mean exactly that. Our country has a wealth of resources and there is no reason for parts of a product to be made elsewhere. The only reason I can see is the greed of companies to have a greater margin of profit.

So lets keep that "Made-in-USA"

to mean just that and be proud of it

Sincerely,

Mrs. Carol Gisler
