

DoD Insect Repellent System

If you have questions about any of the materials listed below, please contact the U.S. Army Center for Health Promotion & Preventive Medicine, ATTN: Entomological Sciences Program, 5158 Blackhawk Road, Aberdeen Proving Ground, Maryland 21010-5403; DSN 584-3613 or Commercial (410) 436-3613; FAX -2037

- Fact Sheet: “DoD Insect Repellent System”
- Policy Memorandums
 - Joint Memorandum, “Deployment Health Surveillance and Readiness,” 4 December 1998
 - DoD Memorandum, “Basic Training on the Use of Personal Protective Measures to Prevent Diseases Carried by Insects and Other Arthropods,” 24 April 2002
 - CENTAF Memorandum, “Prevention of Arthropod-Borne Diseases in Iraq,” 16 April 2003
 - DoD Memorandum, “Medical Advisory – Leishmaniasis,” 12 September 2003
 - CENTAF Memorandum, 2004 CENTAF Policy on Malaria Chemoprophylaxis, 23 January 2004”
- Other Policy Documents
 - STP 21-1-SMCT, “Soldier’s Manual of Common Tasks, Skill Level 1,” 31 August 2003
 - FORSCOM Regulation 700-2, “FORSCOM Standing Logistics Instructions,” 1 December 1999

Guidance Documents

- AFPMB Technical Guide 36, “Personal Protective Measures Against Insects and Other Arthropods of Military Significance”
- AFPMB PPMs Information Paper, “Protect Yourself Against Biting Insects,” February 2001
- AFPMB PPMs Information Paper, “Safety of Permethrin Treated Uniforms,” September 2001.
- FM 21-10, and MCRP 4-11.1D, “Field Hygiene and Sanitation,” 21 June 2000
- Wallet Card: “DoD Insect Repellent System”
- Supplies
 - Standard Pesticides Available to DoD Components & All Federal Agencies
 - DoD Pest Management Materiel Other Than Pesticides
- Other materials
 - GTA 08-05-062, “U.S. Army Guide to Staying Healthy”
 - Fact Sheet: “Flea and Tick Collars – Hazardous to Human Health”