Docket No. 9302

RESPONDENT RAMBUS INC.'S SUBMISSION
REGARDING COMPANY ATTENDANCE
AT SYNCLINK AND JEDEC 42.3 MEETINGS

Respondent Rambus Inc. submits the following information regarding overlapping attendance at SyncLink and JC 42.3 meetings.<sup>1</sup>

The evidence in the trial record shows that of the thirty-four companies that attended at least one SyncLink/SLDRAM Inc. meeting in 1996 or 1997, thirty-one also attended a JEDEC 42.3 meeting in that same time period. As set out in more detail in exhibits A and B, the following companies attended one or more meetings of the SyncLink Consortium (or its successor, SLDRAM, Inc.) and the JEDEC 42.3 committee in 1996 and/or 1997:

---

<sup>1</sup> The issue of whether the overlapping attendance at the two types of meetings was sufficient to justify the use of SyncLink-related evidence as demonstrative of the “but-for world” in this case was raised at closing argument. See Tr. 11676-69. The parties were unable to reach agreement on the nature of the information to be provided to Your Honor on this issue. See fn. 3, infra.

<sup>2</sup> This list is based entirely upon admitted trial exhibits, which are summarized in exhibits A and B hereto. Although Complaint Counsel did not point to any inaccuracy in this list, they were unwilling to stipulate to it. Complaint Counsel took the position that the only relevant inquiry was whether individuals who had been present at the August 1995 SyncLink meeting (where Rambus's patents were mentioned) had later attended JEDEC 42.3 meetings. The evidence shows, however, that the possibility that Rambus would have intellectual property covering SyncLink devices was raised at SyncLink and SLDRAM Inc. meetings long after August 1995. For example, the July 1997 SLDRAM Inc. meeting minutes state that "Rambus will sue" SyncLink members for patent infringement. (RX 966 at 3). The overlap between SyncLink/SLDRAM and JEDEC 42.3 meeting attendance throughout 1996 and 1997 is therefore relevant in this matter.
