The National Agricultural Library (NAL), is the largest agricultural library in the world and is part of the Agricultural Research Service (ARS) of the U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA).

The library is viewed nationally and internationally as the premiere world resource for agricultural information. NAL's role is to gather, maintain and make that information accessible. NAL users include federal, state and local government scientists and officials; farmers; professors, researchers and students at universities and colleges; educators; private scientific and agricultural organizations; extension agents; business men/women; the news media; and the general public.

The United States Department of Agriculture (USDA) prohibits discrimination in all its programs and activities on the basis of race, color, national origin, gender, religion, age, disability, political beliefs, sexual orientation, and marital or family status. (Not all prohibited bases apply to all programs.) Persons with disabilities who require alternative means for communication of program information (Braille, large print, audiotape, etc.) should contact USDA's TARGET Center at 202-720-2600 (voice and TDD).

To file a complaint of discrimination, write USDA, Director, Office of Civil Rights, Room 326-W, Whitten Building, 14th and Independence Avenue, SW, Washington, DC 20250-9410 or call 202-720-5964 (voice or TDD). USDA is an equal opportunity provider and employer.

Services Available to Libraries, Institutions and Organizations

The National Agricultural Library (NAL) accepts requests from libraries and other organizations in accordance with the national and international interlibrary loan code and guidelines. In its national role, NAL supplies copies of agricultural materials not found elsewhere. Submit requests to major university libraries, national or provincial institutions or network sources prior to sending requests to NAL. If the needed publications are not available from these sources, submit requests to NAL with a statement indicating their non-availability. Materials in NAL's collection are not loaned outside the United States; however, copies of materials may be provided. There is a limit of 50 pages per item to comply with copyright law.

AGLINET -- Requestors in countries with an AGLINET library are encouraged to make full use of that library and its networking capabilities. As an AGLINET participant, NAL provides free document delivery service for materials published in the United States to other AGLINET participants.

Requests -- Submit requests on the American Library Association (ALA) or the International Federation of Library Associations and Institutions (IFLA) interlibrary loan form, or via electronic mail, Ariel™, or facsimile. (See further details under For Electronic Access and Delivery below.)

The Document Delivery Services Branch accepts ILL requests from libraries via several electronic methods. All requests must comply with established routing and referral policies and procedures. A sample format for ILL requests follows.

INTERNET.....lending@nal.usda.gov

Start the subject line with one word format:

3 letter month abbreviation + day + NAL + # of request placed that day,

For Example: jul25NAL4 (if this is the fourth request on July 25).

For Example: jul 25NAL1-4 (if this is four requests submitted at one time)

OCLC.....AGL

TELEFACSIMILE.....301-504-5675

Requests can be created on standard ILL forms and then faxed. NAL will fill via FAX at no additional cost if FAX number is included on request. NAL will send up to 30 pages per article. If request exceeds 30 pages, NAL will ship via postal service. There is no RUSH service.

ARIEL™ .....ariel.nal.usda.gov

NAL will fill the request via ARIEL™ if the ARIEL™ address is included in the request. NAL treats ARIEL™ at an alternative delivery mechanism--not an expedited service. NAL will send up to 30 pages per article via ARIEL™. If request exceeds 30 pages, NAL will ship via postal service.

Required data elements for all requests:

Copyright Compliance – Pre-printed forms must contain your signature to indicate copyright compliance.

On e-mail requests include the complete Statement of Copyright Compliance. Libraries may indicate compliance by including the initials of one statement, either "CCL" for compliance with the copyright law or "CCG" for compliance with Copyright Guidelines or a statement that the request complies with U.S.

Copyright Law or other acceptable copyright laws (i.e. IFLA, CLA, etc.). Libraries must also provide authorizing official's name. Requests will be rejected if this information is not included.
