In the Matter of

CALIFORNIA PACIFIC MEDICAL GROUP, INC., dba
BROWN AND TOLAND MEDICAL GROUP,

a corporation.

Docket No. 9306

COMPLAINT COUNSEL'S MOTION TO APPEND INADVERTENTLY OMITTED
"EXHIBIT A" TO COMPLAINT COUNSEL'S OPPOSITION
TO RESPONDENT'S MOTION TO EXTEND DISCOVERY AND HEARING DATE

On Friday, November 14, 2003, complaint counsel filed our opposition to respondent's motion to extend discovery and hearing date ("opposition motion"). Unfortunately, shortly after the Secretary's office closed that Friday, we discovered that "Exhibit A," referred to in footnote 6 of the opposition motion, was inadvertently omitted from the filing. Accordingly, we respectfully request that Your Honor accept the attached copy of "Exhibit A" and append it to our opposition motion.

Respectfully submitted,

Re: FTC v Brown and Toland Medical Group, Docket No. 9306
Subpoena duces tecum issued to Aetna, Inc.

Dear Mr. Dennis,

Pursuant to the voice mails that you left me during the week of September 22, 2003, attached please find a subpoena regarding the above referenced matter that you have agreed to accept service of on behalf of Aetna, Inc. This subpoena largely mirrors the subpoena that the FTC has already issued Aetna, Inc., and there is no need to produce the same documents twice. Rather, to the extent that Aetna, Inc. produces documents in response to the FTC subpoena, it will not have to produce them in response to this one. Additionally, we will agree to an extension of time to file a motion to quash at least until you have produced documents to the FTC. We apologize for any inconvenience this subpoena may cause. If you would like to discuss any aspect of the subpoena, please do not hesitate to contact me. My direct telephone line is (202) 895-5226.

Sincerely,

Alicia Gutierrez, Esq.
