I work on computers. It is amazing how much junk I find on people's PC's. Stuff that they have no idea is even there. Call it spyware... adware.... It is getting to be as big a problem as viruses. And MORE INSIDIOUS!!

I am sure these purveyors of tracking cookies and web beacons are lobbying hard to protect their interests. Remember that they are NOT the consumers... It is US... the little guys you are charged with protecting.

Don't sell us out... like the FCC. Do your job, OK?

Thanks.
