

Anything you can do to limit porn spam would be so gratefully appreciated by my entire household. I've had to close email accounts because they completely choke out normal mail. The do not call list is working great; I wish there was a "no porn list" for people. In lieu of that, I am in total support of your move to make porn spammers put labels on their "garbage." Thank you for the opportunity to express my views.