

I am writing to say that I would be very happy to see something done about governing this type of email. I resent that it is sent (whatever the subject is) and that I cannot block it because the subject line is mumbo jumbo/symbols. There may be some people out there that want this email but, I do not!

If there is a petition like the "Do Not Call Registry" I will gladly sign it. Please keep me informed if possible.

Pam Libera
CA