

Re: 9-16-04 6095

7/6/04

①

How can credit reporting agencies report old outdated information (because they believe the businesses) to companies and not expect the customer to be declined, red-lined with inaccurate information. Stop letting companies (insurance etc.) use this inaccurate scoring tactic

Jim Elliott Henderson

Since 9/02, I have disputed

7/1/04

2

outdated, inaccurate information on my credit report. They place my comments in the remarks section of my report. This information is out-dated, old, dead

Please stop them from ruining peoples livelihoods (jobs, insurance, cars etc.) just be fair to everyone (my fair share of taxes)