

From: Maner, William L.
Posted At: Tuesday, March 09, 2004 10:26 PM
Posted To: spywareworkshop2004
Conversation: Public comment on electronic and other privacy
Subject: Public comment on electronic and other privacy

Dear Sirs:

This country is heading in the wrong direction with more and more robust and invasive technologies of surveillance. Persecution, prosecution, and incarceration are not the pillars of this society. I prefer a country with more freedom and greater risk than the warm and fuzzy society of less freedom with greater security. Laws should be passed severely restricting electronic spyware.

Thank You,
William Maner