I am the IT Manager at a midsize company in Georgia. I have had so many problems with Spyware and Adware that I have no idea how you could defend the "Companies" that produce this type of software. I spent 3 days last week trying to get the remnants of the so called software off of one pc. Then it caused a problem with "About:blank" (Check out the message boards on that one) . I am a firm believer in Free Enterprise but not at the cost of time and money to the consumers/victims. In my opinion they are glorified virus/worm writers!

Thanks
