Dear Sirs,

I am a Disabled Veteran with a very limited Fixed income. Last month I had to throw out an 8 month old computer that was ruined by this so called "Spy ware and Viruses". I had used this system to communicate with members of my family, my old Military friends, and new friends since phone bills are so high for long distance calls. Thanks for allowing this to happen by the lack of action on your part. I served my country, you are supposed to protect the public also. What happened? Why are there no fines, or laws out there to get these people?
