To anyone who will listen.

I am a police officer, have been for 13 years. I cant go into anyones house , or listen in to anyones conversations without probable cause signed off by a judge. What gives anyone the right to commit burglary in my home or office with their spy or ad ware.

Make this all illegal, don't let them do it anymore.

While working I have to spend too large a portion of my time...paid for by tax payers...removing or checking for each days attacks by these companies.

On my own computer...it just pisses me off.

I truly am tired of it.

Stop it please.
