

Frank D. Elkins

Mon 5/17/2004

Bought a keyboard-Mouse combo made by Logi-tech from TigerDirect.com As soon as I installed the software, NAV identified a malicious script trying to install itself on my computer. Vetoed the installation, but it installed anyway. It shut down my NAV & who knows what else. I was fortunate that a friend of mine identified it as spyware. I downloaded Spybot & got rid of a dozen entries in my computer that I didn't authorize