Something needs to be done about all the spyware. I have a brand new computer and it has become much slower. My pop up blocker no longer works because spyware overrides it. This is a serious violation of privacy. They do not inform you they are putting software on the computer. This is espionage and I feel violated! Get something done! Stop this covert and uninvited attack on our computers.

Shelley Davis