

Power Supplies Workshop Agenda

Pacific Energy Center, San Francisco, CA

Monday, January 14, 2002

9:00 a.m. – 5:00 p.m.

- | | | |
|-------|--|--------------------------|
| I. | Introductions and Initial Remarks
Noah Horowitz (NRDC) and Gary Fernstrom (PG&E) | 9:00 to 9:30 a.m. |
| II. | Background on standby power use and energy savings opportunities – Alan Meier (LBNL) | 9:30 to 9:50 a.m. |
| III. | Background on full load (“active”) power use and energy savings opportunities –
Chris Calwell (Ecos Consulting) | 9:50 to 10:10 a.m. |
| IV. | Break | 10:10 to 10:25 a.m. |
| V. | Panel discussion: What are the needs of power supply buyers? What are the constraints? | 10:25 to 11:10 a.m. |
| VI. | Panel discussion: What technologies exist to make better power supplies? | 11:10 a.m. to 12:15 p.m. |
| VII. | Lunch | 12:15 to 1:00 p.m. |
| VIII. | Panel Discussion: Lessons from the Trenches – Companies that have already made the switch to efficient power supplies | 1:00 to 1:30 p.m. |
| IX. | Breakout sessions <ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ PC’s and Laptops▪ Printers, Copiers, Other Office/Networking Equipment▪ Audio, Telecommunication, and Other Products | 1:30 to 2:30 p.m. |
| X. | Break | 2:30 to 2:45 p.m. |
| XI. | Findings and recommendations from breakout sessions – Gary Fernstrom (PG&E)
and Chris Calwell (Ecos Consulting) | 2:45 to 3:15 p.m. |
| XII. | Domestic initiatives: ENERGY STAR [®] , Executive Order 13221, and federal procurement –
Craig Hershberg (EPA) and Jeff Harris (LBNL) | 3:15 to 3:45 p.m. |
| XIII. | International initiatives: Code of Conduct, Group for Energy Efficient Appliances (GEEA) –
remarks submitted by Hans-Paul Siderius (NOVEM BV) | 3:45 to 4:15 p.m. |
| XIV. | Next steps (research needed, test methods, public awareness, utility efforts) – Noah Horowitz (NRDC) | 4:15 to 5:00 p.m. |
| XV. | Meeting Adjourns | 5:00 p.m. |