

This edition of Healthy People 2010 supersedes the January 2000 Conference Edition. It includes updated data. In some cases, these updates have resulted in new baselines and targets for objectives as well as changes in population data tables and text. Data in this edition are as of June 1, 2000. For further explanation of differences between the editions, please refer to the Reader's Guide in volume I of this document.

For detailed information on objectives and data systems, see the companion document, Tracking Healthy People 2010.

Healthy People 2010 documents are available online at the Healthy People Web site at <http://www.health.gov/healthypeople>. For more information, visit the Web site or call 1-800-367-4725.
