2003-2004 SAR/ISIR Comment Codes and Text

Overview

The 2003-2004 SAR/ISIR Comment Codes and Text document serves as a stand-alone guide, as well as a companion to the EDE Technical Reference.

Please refer to this document for information on comment codes and text, including:

- 2003-2004 SAR Comment Text
- 2003-2004 SAR Acknowledgement Comment Text
- 2003-2004 ISIR Comment Text

We have not included the Web version of the comment text in this guide because it is very similar to the paper SAR comment text. The only differences are wording changes to make the comments relevant to the Web version of the SAR rather than paper form. For example, the comment code text for the paper version describes "printing" the information on the SAR, whereas the Web version describes "displaying" the information.

How do I use these tables?

The following tables list all the CPS comment codes. The SAR table and the ISIR table are comprised of four columns. In the first column, the comment codes are listed numerically. In the second column, you will find the comment text that is printed on SARs or on printed ISIRs. In the third column, we indicate if a C code is set. The C code is typically generated when data match results require FAA resolution. However, the C code is also generated if an applicant's response to drug question 35 requires resolution or FAA action. If there is also a reject code associated with a comment code, the reject code will be listed in column four. As a system change for 2003-2004, comment codes will no longer be set for comments that do not have text to be printed on the SAR or ISIR.

Note: The SAR Acknowledgement table only contains the comment code number and the comment code definition.

How are comment codes set?

Comment codes are set by the CPS on the student's transaction to provide information to the student and to you in the Financial Aid Office.

How do the ISIR Comment Codes work?

The 2003-2004 ISIR Comment Text is used for ISIRs printed from EDExpress, another software developer, or your internal ISIR print program. The electronic ISIR file, sent to the school, contains the comment code numbers that should print on the ISIR. Each ISIR comment code is 3 digits and can be found in positions 1589-1648 in the ISIR file. Comment Codes are also printed on SAR Acknowledgements and some are provided on regular SARs.

Where can I find more information about ISIRs?

The ISIR Guide, containing 2003-2004 ISIR information, is scheduled to be published by the U.S. Department of Education at a later date. The ISIR Guide can be found on the following Web site: ifap.ed.gov.

Note: This document will be updated and reposted to the U.S. Department of Education's Federal Student Aid Download (FSAdownload) Web site located at FSAdownload.ed.gov as well as ifap.ed.gov, as needed.

Appendix

Overview

New for 2003-2004, we created an Appendix for this technical reference companion. This appendix will include all the tracking logs for each set of change pages as they are issued.

We will show new text additions in the change pages with bold italic text. Text deletions will be marked with ~~strikethrough~~.

The footer on each page of the section will change to reflect the month that the change was made. For example, if a change was made on page 1-12, all pages in section 1, will show the new month in the footer. Use the corresponding Tracking Log to see what was changed in that section during that period.

This Appendix contains the current and previous tracking logs for your reference.
