FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

KC MAN PLEADS GUILTY TO BANK BURGLARY

KANSAS CITY, Mo. – Todd P. Graves, United States Attorney for the Western District of Missouri, announced that a Kansas City, Mo., man pleaded guilty in federal court today to burglarizing Central Communications Credit Union.

David S. Adams, 33, of Kansas City, pleaded guilty before U.S. District Judge Gary A. Fenner this morning to an indictment that was returned by a federal grand jury on Oct. 7, 2003.

By pleading guilty, Graves said, Adams admitted that he broke into the office of Central Communications Credit union, 2539 Broadway, Kansas City, on July 1 or 2, 2003. Adams stole nearly $97,000 in the bank burglary, according to Graves.

Under federal statutes, Adams could be subject to a sentence of up to 20 years in federal prison without parole, plus a fine up to $250,000. His sentence will be determined according to the United States Sentencing Guidelines. A sentencing hearing will be scheduled after the completion of a presentence investigation by the United States Probation Office.

This case is being prosecuted by Assistant U.S. Attorney K. Michael Warner. It was investigated by the Federal Bureau of Investigation.
