KC AREA MAN INDICTED FOR STEALING $27,000 WORTH OF MOTOR VEHICLE PRODUCTS

KANSAS CITY, Mo. – Todd P. Graves, United States Attorney for the Western District of Missouri, announced that a Kansas City, Mo., area man was indicted by a federal grand jury today for stealing more than $27,000 worth of motor vehicle products.

Kenny R. Borders, 32, of Kansas City, Mo., was charged in an indictment returned by a federal grand jury meeting in Kansas City.

The federal indictment alleges that Borders stole motor vehicle products – valued at approximately $27,583 – from a 53-foot Trailmobile trailer belonging to Waller Trucking Company, Inc, at the GEO Space Distribution Center, 601 South 291 Highway in Independence, Mo., between February 1, 2002 and May 7, 2002. The motor vehicle products included Armor All products, STP Fuel Injector & Carburetor Cleaner, Super Tech Oil Treatment, and Son of a Gun products. According to the indictment, the theft constituted an interstate shipment of freight from the Clorox Company in Oakland, Georgia, to Wal-Mart in Plainview, Texas.

Graves cautioned that the charge contained in the indictment is simply an accusation, and not evidence of guilt. Evidence supporting the charge must be presented to a federal trial jury, whose duty is to determine guilt or innocence.

The case is being prosecuted by Assistant U.S. Attorney Christina Y. Tabor. The case was investigated by the Federal Bureau of Investigation and the Missouri State Highway Patrol.
