FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

JEFFERSON CITY COUPLE SENTENCED FOR METH CONSPIRACY

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo. – Todd P. Graves, United States Attorney for the Western District of Missouri, announced today that a husband and wife from Jefferson City were sentenced today for conspiring to distribute methamphetamine in Callaway County, Mo.

Gregory William Roberds, 39, and Angela Marie Roberds, 31, of Jefferson City, were both sentenced by U.S. District Judge Scott O. Wright this morning. Gregory Roberds and Angela Roberds were sentenced to five years of probation and ordered to attend substance abuse counseling.

On Oct. 4, 2002, the Roberds pleaded guilty to conspiring with each other to distribute, and possess with the intent to distribute 50 grams or more of methamphetamine in Callaway County.

The Roberds admitted to a series of illegal drug transactions between Aug. 13, 2001 and Sept. 11, 2001, Graves said. Those transactions included two $250 sales and two $800 sales of methamphetamine to an undercover law enforcement officer.

The case was prosecuted by Assistant U.S. Attorney Jim Lynn. It was investigated by the Mid-Missouri Unified Strike Team and Narcotics Group (MUSTANG).
