

Financial Resources Questionnaire

U.S. Office of Personnel Management
Retirement Programs

General Information

The purpose of this questionnaire is to determine your eligibility for:

1. waiver of the amount due the retirement system on the basis of financial hardship;
2. compromise in the amount to be repaid;
3. lower installments; and/or
4. a voluntary repayment agreement.

For more information on waiver, compromise, lower installments, or voluntary repayment, please refer to our letter or notice informing you of the overpayment. (Note: If you are only requesting lower installments, you do not need to fill out this questionnaire as long as your payments will be (1) at least $50 a month and (2) sufficient to pay off the entire amount within three years.)

Failure to supply all the requested information may result in an unfavorable decision. Please note that you may be asked to provide verification of the information you supply in this questionnaire (e.g., evidence of claimed expenses).

To be considered for waiver, compromise, lower installments, or a voluntary repayment agreement, you must complete and return this questionnaire to us within 30 days after the date shown in the notice of overpayments.

General Instructions

1. Please read all items carefully.
2. Type or print in ink.
3. Complete all items on the form. If a question does not apply, answer "No" or "None". Do not leave it blank. If answers require additional space, continue them in Section X. Attach additional sheets if necessary. Include your name and retirement claim number in the upper right corner of each additional sheet.
4. Sign and date this questionnaire in Section XI.
5. Send the completed form to:
Office of Personnel Management
Reconsideration and Appeals Division
P.O. Box 45, Stop 107
Boyers, Pennsylvania 16017

Detailed Instructions

Most of the questionnaire items are self-explanatory. Instructions are provided below for those items identified with an asterisk(*), which require further explanation.

Section I - Personal Data

- Item 1 Give the name of the former Federal employee upon whose service your entitlement to retirement system benefits was based. (If the benefits are based upon your own service, give your name.)

Section IV - Average Monthly Income

- Item 1 Enter your current monthly gross salary - i.e., wages, fees, commissions - for yourself and then your spouse. (Enter the total salary paid before any payroll deductions are made; e.g., Federal, state, and local taxes; social security taxes; insurance, etc.). If your salary fluctuates on a monthly basis, estimate the monthly average.

- Item 6 Enter all other current income not listed. This may include unemployment compensation, public assistance benefits, trust income, tax refunds, alimony, child support, royalties, payments of debts owed to you, income provided by dependents listed in Section I (other than spouse), etc. Estimate the average monthly amount.

Section V - Average Monthly Expenses

- Item 1 Enter the amount you currently spend on average for rent, mortgage, homeowner/condominium fees, etc., each month. If you include property taxes in this item, do not include them in V.9.
- Item 3 Enter the average monthly amount you spend for electricity, telephone, gas, water, coal, oil, etc.
- Item 4 Enter the average monthly amount you spend for household maintenance (repairs, cleaning supplies, etc.) and personal necessities.
- Item 7 Enter the average monthly amount you spend for insurance (life, health, accident, automobile, homeowners, etc.). Do not include homeowner's insurance if it is already included in item V.1.
- Item 8 Transportation costs include necessary automobile expenses (gas, oil, maintenance), cab fares, and public transportation.
- Item 9 Enter 1/12 of all taxes you pay in a year, including Federal, state, and local taxes; property taxes not included in item V.1; sales taxes not included in other items, etc.
- Item 10 Enter the total amount due monthly from existing liabilities as shown in Column E of Section VII. (This amount should not include any expenses - such as mortgage payments - listed under other items in Section V.)
- Item 11 Other living expenses which you can prove to be ordinary and necessary. Provide a breakdown of these expenses in Section X.

Section VIII - Assets

- Item 4 Enter the cash value of your money market accounts, certificates of deposit, etc. Do not include Individual Retirement Accounts (IRA's) or other interest bearing accounts which belong in item 6.
- Item 5 The current value on any stocks or bonds you own. The current value is the amount you would receive if you sold these securities.
- Item 6 The current value of any IRA's, Keoughs or similar retirement savings accounts.
- Item 8 Identify any automobiles, vans, trucks, motorcycles, motor homes (RV's), trailers, campers, boats, etc., that you own, and their resale value (the amount you would receive if you sold these vehicles). Any remaining liabilities for these vehicles should appear in Section VII.
- Item 9 The resale value of your home and other real estate. (If you own two or more properties, list separately. Also show the unpaid amount of any real estate mortgages in Section X.)
- Item 10 The current resale value of any other personal property (art pieces, jewelry, etc.) which can be sold and which are valued in excess of $1,000 per item. (Itemize in Section X.)

Privacy Act Statement

The Office of Personnel Management (OPM) administers the Civil Service Retirement System and the Federal Employees Retirement System for Federal employees as authorized by chapters 83, 84, 87, and 89 of title 5, U.S. Code, and Public Laws 83-589, 84-356, and 86-724. The Federal Claims Collection Act of 1966 as amended (Public Law 89-508) empowers the head of a Federal agency to enforce collection of claims for the United States of money or property arising out of the activities of the agency. Section 179.102 of title 5, Code of Federal Regulations, delegates authority to the Associate Director for Retirement and Insurance for collection of claims arising out of overpayment of Federal retirement benefits. Public Law 104-134 (April 26, 1996) requires that any person doing business with the Federal government furnish a social security number or tax identification number. This is an amendment to title 31, Section 7701. The information requested on this form is needed to evaluate your financial ability to repay OPM. The information may be shared with the General Accounting Office and the United States Department of Justice in the event litigation is required to enforce collection. This information may be shared and is subject to verification, via paper, electronic media, or through the use of computer matching programs, with national, state, local, or other charitable or social security administrative agencies in order to determine benefits under their programs, to obtain information necessary for determination or continuation of benefits under this program, or to report income for tax purposes. It may also be shared and verified, as noted above, with law enforcement agencies when they are investigating a violation or potential violation of the civil or criminal law. Provision of the information is voluntary; however, failure to supply all requested information may result in a thorough financial investigation or a decision adverse to you. Pending the results of the investigation, evidence may be turned over to the Department of Justice for appropriate action. Intentionally false statements and/or suspected illegal activities are reportable to the appropriate law enforcement agencies.

Public Burden Statement

We think this form takes an average 60 minutes per response to complete, including the time for reviewing instructions, getting the needed data, and reviewing the completed form.
