Congresswoman Loretta Sanchez Is Working to Secure More Resources For First Responders

Federal Funding For Local Homeland Security Efforts

As a regional and national center for business, trade, and tourism, Orange County is a potential target for terrorism. Congresswoman Loretta Sanchez is pushing to give first responders the equipment and financial support they need to protect area landmarks, attractions, and public places.

Security needs to begin at home – in our seaports, airports, train stations, on our roads and bridges, and in our cities and towns. As a member of the Committee on Homeland Security, Congresswoman Sanchez has...

- Delivered $25 Million In Homeland Security Grants For Anaheim And Santa Ana.

Congresswoman Sanchez is making sure that Orange County receives its fair share of federal Homeland Security assistance.

- Led Efforts To Secure Local Ports.

Congresswoman Sanchez sponsored two bills (H.R. 3788 and H.R. 4355) designed to enhance port security by using long-range vessel tracking systems, cargo rerouting plans, enhanced cargo inspection procedures, and other security measures.

- Fought To Protect Critical Infrastructure.

Congresswoman Sanchez is demanding a complete review of the threats facing our roads, communications systems, power plants, and other vulnerable targets. She also cosponsored legislation (H.R. 3158) to help state and local governments prevent, prepare for, and respond to acts of terrorism.

- Pushed For Direct Funding To Local First Responders.

Congresswoman Sanchez sponsored legislation (H.R. 4810) to speed the transfer of Homeland Security Grant funds to local law enforcement officials.

Keeping Orange County Safe And Secure.
