

Leonard J. Cali

Leonard J. Cali is Vice President and Director of AT&T's Federal Regulatory Affairs group. He is responsible for advocacy of AT&T's regulatory positions before federal agencies. Before assuming these responsibilities in October of 1998, he served in the AT&T Law and Public Policy group, and had responsibility for a range of regulatory issues and development of AT&T's policy positions on telecommunications competition and related matters.

Prior to joining AT&T in 1988, Len was associated with the law firm of Cadwalader, Wickersham & Taft in New York City, where he focused on general commercial litigation matters.

Len received a Juris Doctor degree from the University of Michigan Law School, and an undergraduate degree from Fordham University.
