

Melissa E. Newman

Melissa Newman is currently Executive Director in the Federal Relations department at U S WEST, working on federal regulatory issues. Prior to joining U S WEST, Ms. Newman served as Deputy Division Chief of the Policy and Program Planning Division in the Common Carrier Bureau. She joined the FCC in 1989 as an attorney in the Policy Division. Ms. Newman then went to the private sector, practicing communications law and representing telecommunications companies in connection with federal and state regulatory matters as well as acquisitions and other transactions. She returned to the FCC in 1994 as Legal Counsel to the Common Carrier Bureau Chief.

Ms. Newman received her B.A. from the University of Minnesota and her J.D. from the Washington University School of Law in St. Louis, Missouri.