ANNOUNCEMENT NO: E20040105-A1

OPEN: 08/05/2004

CLOSE: 10/30/04

THIS IS A PERMANENT POSITION.

Vacancy announcement amended to extend the closing date.

POSITION VACANT: Science Education Administrator (Program Director), AD-1701-4. Annual salary ranges from $85,210 to $132,791.

PROMOTION POTENTIAL: Science Education Administrator (Program Director), AD-1701-4.

LOCATION: Directorate for Education and Human Resources, Division of Elementary, Secondary and Informal Education, Teacher Professional Continuum, Arlington, VA.

RELOCATION: Expenses will be paid.

BARGAINING UNIT STATUS: This position is included in the bargaining unit and will be filled in accordance with the merit staffing provisions of the Collective Bargaining Agreement Article VIII.

AREA OF CONSIDERATION: All Sources

THIS POSITION IS OUTSIDE THE COMPETITIVE CIVIL SERVICE

Appointment to this position will be made under the Excepted Authority of the NSF Act. Candidates who do not have civil service status or reinstatement eligibility will not obtain civil service status if selected. Candidates currently in the competitive service will be required to waive competitive civil service rights if selected. Usual civil service benefits (retirement, health benefits, life insurance) are applicable for appointments of more than one year. Disabled veterans with 30% service-connected disabilities as well as other applicants with severe disabilities will be considered without regard to the closing date if applications are received prior to final selection.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES: The person selected for this position will be assigned work primarily in the program areas of Teacher Professional Continuum (TPC) and Instructional Materials-Development (IMD), in science education at K-8 grade levels. The Program Director is expected to take an active role in program planning, management and outreach in areas of content, grade level and other programmatic areas of individual expertise. In cooperation with management and other professional staff, the incumbent will develop program goals, strategies, and timetables, specifying objectives, defining new initiatives, and recommending plans for development and implementation. This incumbent also has the responsibility for implementing the merit review process in assigned ESIE program areas – e.g., recommending awards and declinations. Conducting substantive negotiations for proposed awards, and overseeing budget revisions. The Program Director oversees program management and ensures that commitments to and by the National Science Foundation (NSF) are met. The person will establish liaisons with education communities (both internal and external to NSF) working on curricula, instructional methods, and education research generally in specified areas of disciplinary and grade-level expertise. Over the next year, the incumbent will learn about the development and administration aspects of the Presidential Awards for Excellence in Mathematics and Science Teaching (PAEMST) program with the intent of assuming responsibility for its management.

QUALIFICATIONS REQUIRED:

Applicants must have a Ph.D. or equivalent experience in science, technology, engineering or mathematics (STEM) or in STEM education plus six or more years of research, research administration, and/or managerial experience in STEM education pertinent to the position.

QUALITY RANKING FACTORS:

1. Broad knowledge and understanding of elementary and middle school science (grades K-8) that demonstrates a comprehensive knowledge and understanding of quality teaching; teacher in-service, pre-service and inductions programs, as well as instructional materials in science education.
2. Skill in organizing, implementing and managing a proposal-driven grant program allocating resources to a broad spectrum of program goals.
3. Demonstrated ability to interact with members of the disciplinary, education and professional communities to effectively present and advocate program policies and plans in science education.
4. Knowledge and understanding of budget processes including budget formulation.
5. Research, analytical and technical writing skills which evidence the ability to perform extensive inquiry into a wide variety of significant issues and make recommendations and decisions based on findings.

BASIS FOR RATING: Final ranking is based on an evaluation of your experience, education and training as they relate to the knowledge, skills and abilities specified in the Quality Ranking Factors. Current performance appraisal, letter(s) of recommendation, and awards may also be used in the evaluation process.

CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT: Appointment to the position is contingent upon successful completion of the appropriate background investigation. Satisfactory completion of a one-year trial period may also be required.

HOW TO APPLY: You may apply for this position with the Optional Application for Federal Employment (OF-612), the older Application for Federal Employment (SF-171), a resume, or other application format of your choice - so long as it contains the necessary information (summarized below). You must also submit a current Performance Appraisal or letter(s) of recommendation from professionals who can comment on your capabilities. In order to ensure full consideration, it is recommended that you submit a supplemental statement which specifically addresses how your background and experience relate to each Quality Ranking Factor listed on this announcement.

You must specify the job announcement number, and title and grade(s) of the job for which you are applying.
