SAMPLE EXTENSION AGREEMENT

On January 22, 2001, the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) published the final Arsenic and Clarifications to Compliance and New Source Monitoring Rule. This Rule amends the National Primary Drinking Water Regulations, 40 CFR Part 141 and the regulations for implementation of the National Primary Drinking Water Regulations, 40 CFR Part 142. Provisions related to Clarifications to Compliance and New Source Monitoring for inorganics and organics take effect on January 22, 2004, and the revised arsenic MCL takes effect on January 23, 2006.

The April 28, 1998 revisions to the Primacy Rule extend the time allowed for States and Tribes to adopt new federal regulations from 18 months to 2 years. Therefore, the State or Tribe must adopt regulations pertaining to the Arsenic and Clarifications to Compliance and New Source Monitoring Rule and submit a complete and final primacy revision application by January 22, 2003, unless it requests an extension of up to two years to adopt the new or revised regulations.

Until the State/Tribal Primacy Revision Application has been submitted, the State or Tribe and appropriate EPA Regional office will share responsibility for implementing the primary program elements as indicated in the extension agreement. The State or Tribe and the EPA Regional office should discuss these elements and address terms of responsibility in the agreement. The State, Tribe, and EPA should be viewed as partners in this effort, working toward two very specific public health-related goals. The first goal is to achieve a high level of compliance with the regulation. The second goal is to facilitate successful implementation of the regulation during the transition period before the State or Tribe has interim primacy for the Rule. In order to accomplish these goals, education, training, and technical assistance will need to be provided to water suppliers on their responsibilities under the Arsenic and Clarifications to Compliance and New Source Monitoring Rule.

This document will record the terms of a Primacy Extension Agreement between the State or Tribe and the EPA for the Arsenic and Clarifications to Compliance and New Source Monitoring Rule, and shall remain effective from the date this agreement is signed until either January 22, 2003, or the date the State's or Tribe's primacy application is submitted under 40 CFR §142.12. To retain primacy, the State or Tribe must submit a final and approvable Primacy Revision Application incorporating the above-referenced provisions of the Federal Register to EPA by January 22, 2003, or no later than January 22, 2005, if the State or Tribe has been granted an extension.
