Alfred Stieglitz: The Key Set
The Alfred Stieglitz Collection of Photographs,
National Gallery of Art, Washington
Sarah Greenough

This luxurious two-volume boxed set, bound and slip-cased in linen, is the definitive catalogue of the Alfred Stieglitz Collection of Photographs at the National Gallery of Art, Washington, the most complete Stieglitz holding in existence, donated to the Gallery by his widow, artist Georgia O'Keeffe. Numbering 1,642 photographs, the collection represents the full range of the master photographer's work—from early studies made in Europe, to views of the majestic New York skyline, to incomparable intimate portraits of O'Keeffe.

Stock number: 32555765   $150.00 Hardcover
Georgia O'Keeffe: Catalogue Raisonné
Barbara Buhler Lynes

This beautiful two-volume catalogue raisonné, which presents more than 2,000 works by Georgia O'Keeffe in a variety of media, displays her innovative use of color and form and sheds light on her distinctive contribution to American modernism. The works, many of which have never been reproduced, are arranged chronologically, with full bibliography and exhibition listing. A chronology of the artist's life is included as well.

Stock number: 32493827   $149.99 Hardcover

Mark Rothko: The Works on Canvas
David Anfam

This extraordinary catalogue raisonné documents Mark Rothko's entire oeuvre of paintings on canvas and panel. All works are reproduced in full color. David Anfam explores the variety as well as the amazing continuity of Mark Rothko's pictures. These include the images for which the artist is famous—large, hypnotic, and poignant fields of color—along with almost 400 pictures that show his turns to realism, expressionism, surrealism, and the avant-garde issues of his era. This volume includes the most extensive Rothko bibliography ever published. The fruit of almost a decade of research, this monumental publication is the reference point for all future studies of Rothko's art.

Stock number: 32458333   $185.00 Hardcover