RE: U.S. Department of Labor v. California Department of Industrial Relations
No. 2002-CCP-1

Dear Judge Vittone:

I represent the California Apprenticeship Council, one of the respondents in this proceeding. Under California law, the Council is an entity separate and distinct from respondent California Department of Industrial Relations. The Council has separate counsel and may, and sometimes does, take positions that conflict with positions taken by the Department.

I request that I be placed on the service list for this proceeding. The following is the relevant service information:
