ANNOUNCEMENT NO: E20050014
THIS IS A PERMANENT POSITION.

OPEN: 11/04/04

CLOSE: 12/03/04

Individuals wishing to apply to the Visiting Scientist or Temporary position see vacancy announcement E20050015

POSITION VACANT: Social Scientist, AD-0101-3, Economist, AD-0110-3, or Statistician, AD-1530-3 (Sr. Scientist Resources Analyst). Annual salary ranges from $72,108 to $113,597.

PROMOTION POTENTIAL: Sr. Scientist Resources Analyst, AD-3.

LOCATION: Directorate for Social, Behavioral and Economic Sciences, Division of Science Resources Statistics, Arlington, VA.

RELOCATION: Expenses will be paid.

BARGAINING UNIT STATUS: This position is included in the bargaining unit and will be filled in accordance with the merit staffing provisions of the Collective Bargaining Agreement Article VIII.

AREA OF CONSIDERATION: All Sources

THIS POSITION IS OUTSIDE THE COMPETITIVE CIVIL SERVICE

Appointment to this position will be made under the Excepted Authority of the NSF Act. Candidates who do not have civil service status or reinstatement eligibility will not obtain civil service status if selected. Candidates currently in the competitive service will be required to waive competitive civil service rights if selected. Usual civil service benefits (retirement, health benefits, life insurance) are applicable for appointments of more than one year. Disabled veterans with 30% service-connected disabilities as well as other applicants with severe disabilities will be considered without regard to the closing date if applications are received prior to final selection.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES: This position is in the Science and Engineering Indicators Program (SEI) in the Division of Science Resources Statistics (SRS). SRS is the principal source in the Federal Government for statistical information and quantitative analyses of trends and pattern in S&T resources and outputs that may affect the United States position in the world.

The person selected for this position is responsible for developing quantitatively based analyses on Asian S&E policies, patterns and trends, often in comparison with the United States and the European Union. Toward that end the incumbent develops a network of contacts to obtain data and related materials from international and national sources and private providers. Additionally the selectee will design and prepare responses to requests for information from top management in NSF and others. Due to the high level of expertise this position requires the person chosen is expected to act as a consultant both inside and outside NSF in areas of expertise.

QUALIFICATIONS REQUIRED:

Applicants must have a Ph.D. or equivalent experience in social science, economics or statistics plus four or more years of research, research administration, and/or experience conducting quantitative analyses or managerial experience pertinent to the position.

Ability to read and speak one or more Asian languages is a plus but is not required.

QUALITY RANKING FACTORS:

1. Broad knowledge of countries in the Asian region including polity, economy, higher education and science and technology systems, goals, policies, and activities. Also knowledge of U.S. S&T system and major international science and technology policy issues, such as those relating to S&E workforces and international migration, including authoritative knowledge of economic or behavioral studies of science and engineering resources.
2. Knowledge of research methodology, statistics, economics and/or social sciences, or equivalent experience in the following: statistical and survey techniques sufficient to apply state-of-the-art analysis models and methods to different types of datasets; statistical sampling, imputation and analysis techniques; and the analysis of major, complex data sets.
3. Ability to organize analyses in logical fashion, to work productively both alone and as a member of an interdisciplinary team, and to communicate ideas in a clear manner both orally and in writing. Ability to organize and present analysis findings clearly and concisely in a variety of formats, and to communicate them to both the general public and to those with specialized knowledge in the area.
4. Demonstrated high level of interpersonal skills required in building and maintaining an international network of data suppliers and experts; coordinating with staff in SRS, other NSF offices, or other agencies in conducting assignments; negotiating technical aspects of joint national or international projects; and managing contractor operations.

BASIS FOR RATING: Final ranking is based on an evaluation of your experience, education and training as they relate to the knowledge, skills and abilities specified in the Quality Ranking Factors. Current performance appraisal, letter(s) of recommendation, and awards may also be used in the evaluation process.

CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT: Appointment to the position is contingent upon successful completion of the appropriate background investigation. Satisfactory completion of a one-year trial period may also be required.

HOW TO APPLY: You may apply for this position with the Optional Application for Federal Employment (OF-612), the older Application for Federal Employment (SF-171), a resume, or other application format of your choice - so long as it contains the necessary information (summarized below). You must also submit a current Performance Appraisal or letter(s) of recommendation from professionals who can comment on your capabilities. In order to ensure full consideration, it is recommended that you submit a supplemental statement which specifically addresses how your background and experience relate to each Quality Ranking Factor listed on this announcement.

You must specify the job announcement number, and title and grade(s) of the job for which you are applying. You should also provide the following information: ♦ Your country of citizenship. ♦ Your social security number. ♦ Information about your education, including (1) high school graduation date and (2) college/university information - your major, and type and year of degree(s). If no degree, show total credits earned and indicate whether they are semester or quarter hours. ♦ Information about all your work experience related to this job, including job titles, duties and accomplishments, employer's name and phone number, number of hours worked per week, starting and ending dates (month and year), and annual salary. If you held various positions with the same employer, describe each separately. ♦ If you have Federal civilian experience, indicate the highest grade held, the job series, and dates held. ♦ The brochure Applying for a Federal Job provides information on the Federal job application process; it is available by calling the number listed below. If your application does not provide all the information requested in the vacancy announcement, you may lose consideration for this job.
